Lausche Wins, M'Gregor Keeps Congress Post; School Bonds OK'd, Sewer Issue Just Misses

Funds Voted To Complete Big Program

By MARGUERITE MILLER

Mansfielders agreed to "finish the job" on the city's school rebuilding program at the polls yesterday by passing the $2,500,000 bond issue by a 66.94 per cent vote.

Ninety-seven city precincts and eight Madison precincts, which share in the program, gave an unofficial 10,954 votes for the measure and 5,410 against it.

Mansfield's $500,000 sewer bond issue, however, missed the necessary 65 per cent majority by a mere twenty-two hundredths of a per cent, according to the unofficial tally of the election board.

Official count of votes cast for and against the issues starts today at the election headquarters and is expected to take several days.

Labeled as "one of the musts for Mansfield" and a program which "must be done sometime, somehow," by Mayor Roy W. Vaughn today, the sewer issue, which would have given the city the badly-needed renovation of the present system, lost ground heavily in the Fourth, and parts of the Fifth and Sixth wards. No precinct, however, turned in more votes against the issue than for it.

B. V. BeVier, city sanitary engineer who originally advocated the rebuliding of the city's sewer system, had this to say:

"Whether the issue passes or not, the job is yet to be done. If it can't be accomplished one way, it will have to be done another—either by raising the sewer service rates or by re-submitting the matter to a vote."

Passage of the school bond issue, second voted for city schools in the past three years, pleased Mansfield school officials.

"I'm just delighted to know that the bond issue passed," Supt. W. L. Miller commented. "Mansfield will have one of the most modern and up-to-date physical systems in the state. or in the country, for that matter.

"It will mean the completion of the building program that has been planned for several years and the additions to the program which will give Mansfield school children the best schools to be had."

GIVE HEAVY SUPPORT

The bond issue received its heaviest support in the Third, Fourth and part of the Second wards.

Voters three years ago approved a $2,111,000 issue to remodel the city's grade school buildings and enlarge and remodel the city library.

The board of education, however, found that rocketing building costs made it impossible to construct more than a part of the program.

Included in the program approved yesterday are a new Brinkerhoff-Carpenter building, a new school in the Highland avenue area, a new Senior High field house and other improvements at that school, additions to the Hedges and Bowman schools, a new Prospect school, and addition at Woodland school, and library improvements.

Dems Sweep To Victory In County

Takes 3 Posts Held Formerly By GOP

By GEORGE COMINOS

Following the state and national trends, Democrats swept back into power in Richland county yesterday, winning three offices from the Republicans.

Their smashing victory left four Republicans holding county offices — Common Pleas Judge G. E. Kalbfleisch, Probate-Juvenile Judge Stuart H. Cramer, Coroner Dr. D. C. Lavender and County Commissioner C. L. Shoup. The judges and the coroner did not have opposition in the election while Shoup's term has two more years to go.

The Democratic victory came as 32,525 voters went to the polls in the county. The total vote fell short of the record 36,180 ballots cast in 1940 and the 34,131 total vote in 1944.

Democrats won three offices formerly held by Republicans—a commissioner post, the prosecutor job, and the state representative's office which was held by John L. Catlett at his death about two years ago.

Democrats regained control of the board of commissioners with the re-election of Commissioner Guy F. Stewart, of Lucas, who received 16,459 votes, and the election of Fred W. Dill, of near Bellville, with 15,106 ballots.

SELBY DEFEATED

Dill replaces Republican John W. Selby, present chairman of the board, who received 13,980 votes. The other Republican loser was John C. Friday, a former commis-

GOP Nominee Concedes In Biggest Upset

(By Associated Press)

President Truman, in an astounding upset of pre-balloting predictions, today won the presidency. He will have a Democratic Senate and House to work with him.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey today conceded the presidential election to President Truman at 11:15 a. m. after a night of unprecedented ballot-battling. The race was nip and tuck until the last minute.

Gov. Dewey's telegram read: "My heartiest congratulations to you on your election and every good wish for a successful administration, and I urge all Americans to unite behind you in support of every effort to keep our nation strong and free and establish peace in the world."

At that time, Mr. Truman was leading in 28 states having 304 electoral votes. Needed to win are 266 electoral votes.

Dewey was leading in 16 states with 189 electoral votes. Four states with 38 electoral votes had been captured, or were leaning to, states' right candidate J. Strom Thurmond.

The last Republican hope that Dewey might nose out Truman in the electoral vote, even though he was trailing well behind in popular balloting, apparently faded when late California returns put Truman in front in that state.

At the time Dewey conceded, Truman was leading in or had won the following states:

Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Iowa, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, North Carolina, Ohio, Oklahoma, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Wyoming.

Dewey was leading in these:

Thurmond was in front in four states having a total of 38 electoral votes. He had won Alabama, Mississippi and South Carolina, and was leading in Louisiana. In Tennessee, two electoral votes are in doubt between Truman and Thurmond.

Mr. Truman plans to return to Washington from Independence, Mo., tomorrow, then go to Key West, Fla., Sunday. According to Washington frineds who have been in touch with his Kansas City headquarters.

Even before the president's victory was assured, the returns had clinched Democratic control of Congress, wresting it away from the Republicans who won it two years ago.

The indicated congressional line-up it:

Senate: 54 Democrats and 42 Republicans.

House: 246 Democrats; 188 Republicans, and one American-Labor.

While these may not be the final figures, it is clear that Mr. Truman will have a working majority of his own party in Congress. To this majority he can submit the legislative program over which he and the GOP-run 80th Congress quarreled—quarreled so much that Mr. Truman called Congress "idiot" and the "second worst" in history.

This program includes power to put on price controls, housing legislation, and the so-called "civil rights" measures which led many southern Democrats to break with Mr. Truman.

Among the civil rights proposals are laws against race segre-

McGregor Wins Again

Carrying five of the six counties in his district, Congressman J. Harry McGregor survived the flood of Democratic votes yesterday to win re-election in the 17th district.

Only Richland county failed to give the GOP congressman an edge as he defeated Robert W. Levering, Mt. Vernon attorney, the Democratic candidate. The Richland vote was: Levering, 15,873; McGregor, 15,409.

With only one precinct in Coshocton county remaining to report today, the unofficial returns gave McGregor 60,812 to Levering's 53,233. McGregor's margin was 7,579.

Levering, who had the backing of labor organizations, won Richland county by 464 votes but lost his home county, Knox, by 22 votes.

McGregor, who will begin his fifth term as district congressman, carried his home county, Coshocton, by about 800 votes. Final returns there gave McGregor 6,917 and Levering 6,126.

Final vote in Knox county gave McGregor 7,414, and Levering 7392.

Other complete returns reported were Ashland county, McGregor, 7,575, Levering, 5,933; Delaware county, McGregor, 7,680, Levering, 4,584, and Licking county, McGregor, 15,817, Levering, 13,425.

Totals for 48 of 49 Coshocton county precincts were McGregor, 6,917, Levering, 6,126.

Richland Returns Slowest In Years

Richland county election returns were the slowest in years last night and this morning—but not too slow to outlast jubilant Democrats and crestfallen Republicans who surged around the courthouse to await vote totals.

"I still don't believe it," exclaimed one GOP visitor in the News-Journal tally room in the county engineer's office.

Democrats couldn't believe it either. They watched the growing totals with as much amazement as the Republicans

First official poll tally reached the election board shortly before 10:30—two hours later than had been predicted.

And it was almost 6 a. m. when Springfield "B" showed up as the final precinct to report.

Election board workers kept at their task for eight hours before final totals were ready.

"After-guessing" became the popular sport as the election trend became apparent in the wee hours of the morning

A few who had made advance predictions found cause to chortle. Ralph Lutz, chairman of the county Democratic executive committee, had estimated a total vote in the county of 30,000 to 32,000—and an overwhelming victory for his party.

Ralph Hardy, Republican executive committee chairman, had predicted a vote of 33,300. The actual total of 32,525 made both party leaders good guessers on the number of voters—which was far below the record foreseen by national forecasters.

Election parties were the order of the day—and night—throughout the city. Night spots remained crowded until closing hours, but after that many election enthusiasts remained on the streets.

Onlookers crowded the sidewalk until early hours in front of The News-Journal office, where bulletins were being posted as returns came in. Hundreds of telephone calls were received at the newspaper office After midnight interest centered on the Truman-Dewey race.

Lausche Gets County Edge

Ohio's next governor, Frank J. Lausche, won out in Richland county yesterday, but President Truman lost the county to his Republican opponent, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey Lausche, in winning the major part of the Richland county vote, accomplished yesterday what he was unable to do in 1944. Lausche yesterday polled a total of 16,138 votes. His Republican opponent, Thomas J. Herbert, received 15,883.

In 1946, Herbert was the winner with 12,277 votes to 11,430 for Lausche.

President Truman, although he lost to Dewey, ran a closer race than the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt ran in 1944 in Richland county against Dewey.

Dewey, four years ago, won 18,065 votes in the county compared to 15,406 for the late President Roosevelt

However, in yesterday's balloting Truman cut Dewey's margin, Truman receiving 14,810 votes while Dewey got 15,894.

The Dewey-Roosevelt difference was 2,659 while 1,084 votes separated Dewey and Truman yesterday.

Incidentally, the total vote for each of the Progressive party's electors was 258 in the county.

Dewey won all but one precinct of the 12 in the First ward Lausche won two of those precincts and Herbert, 10.

The eight precincts of the Second ward were heavily for Dewey and Herbert

Precincts of the Third ward went eight for Herbert and four for Truman while Herbert won nine of the 12 precincts.

Of the 20 precincts in Wards four, five and six, Truman captured all except one, while Lausche captured every one of those precincts

In Madison township, Truman took six of nine precincts while Lausche captured seven of them.

BABY DIES OF BURNS

PAINESVILLE — (AP) — Eight-week-old John Mey died yesterday of burns suffered from an overheated electrical heating pad, Coroner W. R. Carle reported The child was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mey of Willoughby.

Dems Winning In Landslide

COLUMBUS —(INS)— Ohio's Democratic juggernaut smashed over Republican opposition today to return ex-Gov. Frank J. Lausche to the governor's chair.

The Democrats, in addition to the governorship, apparently captured eight additional congressional seats and all state offices except that held by veteran Republican Treasurer Don H. Ebright.

In returns from 7,383 polling places, Ebright maintained a lead of 1,048,687 to 996,505 over his Democratic challenger, Harry V. Armstrong.

Voters Favor Pay Boosts For City Police, Firemen

By SHELDON BINN

The majority of voters in every city precinct yesterday granted the city's police and firemen wage increases ranging from 29 to 45 per cent.

The final unofficial count showed the measure carried by nearly 2 to 1, with 9,976 voting for the measure and 5,394 against it.

In terms of dollars and cents, the city's annual payroll will be upped by $98,300. To the 80 members of the police and fire departments, it will mean monthly pay raises ranging from $100 to $125.

The problem of finding the money to pay the increases voted by the people is now squarely in city council's lap. Council will have to do some drastic paring of proposed expenditures in other departments to provide funds for the police and firemen's salaries.

Under the law, council could amend the ordinance as passed by the voters, but such action is conceded unlikely unless an extreme financial crisis develops, inasmuch as councilmanic elections will be held next year.

The city's police and firemen took the issue to the people after council failed to act on pay increase requests made by the two departments.

Wallaceites Deny Charges

The five Wallace-for-President supporters arrested last Thursday after they failed to break up an open air rally which police said was blocking traffic, pleaded innocent in municipal court today to charges of failure to comply with police directions.

The quintet was arrested after they parked their car on Wayne street shortly before shift change time at 2 p. m. and started to sing campaign songs, attracting a crowd which police said was blocking traffic.

Late News Bulletins

Wave of Selling Hits Stock Market

NEW YORK—(AP)—Heavy selling hit the stock market at the opening today in the first reaction to the election. Big blocks of stock appeared frequently on a racing ticker tape. Individual issues dropped fractions to more than three points. Most of the selling hit stocks that are usually more or less inactive.

20,000 Cleveland Ballots Thrown Out

CLEVELAND—(U.P.)—Board of election officials predicted today that approximately 20,000 of an estimated 565,000 ballots cast yesterday in Cuyahoga county will be disputed or invalid because of the complicated ballot.

Mass Demonstration For Truman

KANSAS CITY—(INS)—A tremendous mass demonstration gathered momentum at the Muhlebach hotel in Kansas City today where President Truman received news of Gov. Dewey's concession of defeat to the Democratic forces. There was a terrific crush of people, cheering a triumphant and smiling President who was sure he would get the mandate of the American people for his "grass roots" appeal.

Democrats Nail Down Full Congress Control

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Democrats appeared today to have nailed down complete control of Congress.

The people—in a startling upset—seemingly decided to revamp the legislative body President Truman dubbed history's second worst—even "idiot."

Late returns told of mounting Republican defeats in both Senate and House battles. If the trends continue, here's about how the new Congress will look:

Senate—

Democrats — 54 seats.

Republicans — 42 seats.

(The GOP now controls the Senate 51 to 45.)

House—

Democrats — 229 seats.

Republicans — 205 seats

American Labor Party — 1.

(The GOP controls the 80th Congress House 243 to 185—with two American Labor members and five vacancies.)

Up to 6:45 a. m. (EST), the Democrats already had turned out six Republican senators in winning 18 of the 33 contested seats. They led in six other races Republicans had elected only seven and were leading in two races. Only one-third of

Bissman Gives Club Picture Of Miniature Car Racing

The thrilling story of miniature auto racing was told to members of the Mansfield Rotary club yesterday by William Bissman, Mansfield garageman. He spoke at a luncheon meeting at the Mansfield-Leland hotel.

One of the few small racing car enthusiasts in Richland county, Bissman enters track meets in Ohio cities and even travels to the east and west coasts for some runs.

Maximum speeds of the miniature cars are now around 130 miles per hour, and race on a 220-foot concrete track, Bissman said. One car runs at a time by means of a guiding bridle, Bissman explained, and the winner is judged by time speeds.

Novices can break into the sport with an already manufactured car for about $80. The "fast" boys—that includes enthusiasts like Bissman—usually make their own cars which may cost them from $200 to $500.

Most racers use a mixture of castor oil and alcohol as fuel, and can carry enough for one mile.

The cars use a one-and-one-half-to-one gear ratio, but when the tiny tires become hot and expand the gear ratio is changed, much as shifting gears in a big car changes the speed. Blow-outs on the little cars are common, Bissman said.

Model car racing began in California about 17 years ago. Since then it has spread over the country. Now most record breakers come from Detroit, Mich., where the automobile industry was born.

Canada's newsprint production in 1946 was over five times that of the United States.

Does Stomach Gas and Bloat Make You Feel Miserable?

If so, here is how you may get blessed relief in freeing your stomach from this nervous distress. It works this way:

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better feel better, work better, play better.

Shreve Post Acreage Is Tops In Ohio

55 Acres Held For Future Use

SHREVE—Legionnaires of this Wayne county town top the list of small Ohio cities that own acreage which is devoted to community recreation or is held for future use. The acreage held here totals 55 acres.

A total of 272 Ohio American Legion posts have solved their own "veterans' housing problems" by acquiring post homes, according to results of a survey announced today by state Legion headquarters in Columbus.

The 272 posts constituted 36 per cent of all local legion groups, it was said, and the total value of their properties was estimated at $7,000,000. In addition, seven posts now are erecting homes and dozens of others have free use of public buildings or long-time leases on private property.

Posts at Canton, Lima, Massillon, Columbus and Dillonvale occupy homes they purchased from other fraternal groups. Posts at Salem, Apple Creek, Middleport and Leavittsburg have former churches. Those at Bremen and South Amherst are in former school buildings. One at Greentown has an ex-night club, and one at New Bremen a former opera house.

In the category with Shreve among the acreage holders is Austintown, in Mahoning county, which has 43½ acres. All the lots and larger plots would add up to 460 acres, it was estimated.

A cross-section of the survey revealed the "typical" post home to be a two-story frame or brick structure, either residential or business in type, valued at $13,440 and located on a site of .37 acre.

FIRST WHITE BREAD—After Bernhard Pfister, 6, had been given his allowance at a bread line in Vienna, he dubiously examines a roll and a loaf of bread made from white flour sent from the U. S. You can't blame him for being a little suspicious, for Bernhard was reared on black bread and believed that it was the only kind.

Four bodies, including that of R. G. Rapp, president of the Denver Producing and Refining company, were recovered from the wreckage of a private plane near Roaring Springs, Tex. The plane disappeared Thursday during a severe electric and thunder storm.

An Oklahoma National Guard B-26, which was searching for the plane which crashed at Roaring Springs, crashed near Temple, Okla., and killed its two occupants.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

County OK's Payment

County commissioners have ordered payment of nine bills for the care of transient needy persons at Mansfield General hospital. The bills amounted to $959.

These bills are part of a group which have been the center of a dispute between county and city officials.

In ordering payment, the commissioners said they were acting on a recommendation of the director of the county relief department, William Johns.

A number of other bills were returned as not being county obligations. The bills are being paid out of the general fund.

An $80,000 school bond issue to build a fireproof addition to the present school building in the Union Local school district, and to build an addition to the present gymnasium and auditorium, was passed by a vote of 691 to 185. The vote represents a 78.9 per cent approval.

Truman Eludes Newsmen, Spends Night In Hotel

KANSAS CITY —(ANS)— President Truman relaxed in the presidential suite of Kansas City's Muelebach hotel this morning to await the final outcome of his fight for election.

The chief executive was smiling broadly as reports came in showing him in the lead over his Republican opponent, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

He was extremely happy with the latest developments and had the look of a winner when he entered the hotel after driving into the city from Excelsior Springs.

Mr. Truman had spent the night at the health resort about 15 miles from Kansas City after eluding newsmen.

Mr. Truman took a mineral bath and had a rubdown before getting a snack consisting of a ham and cheese sandwich and buttermilk and climbing into bed.

The Chief Executive had entered the hotel through the rear entrance and had gone to his room on the freight elevator. Only the hotel management knew of his presence.

He was accompanied only by one shift of secret service men.

Mr. Truman appeared "happy as a jaybird" when he returned to Kansas City and chatted very briefly with newsmen as he made his way to the presidential suite.

The President remained confident of victory yesterday when he left for his hideaway. He was certain in his own mind that he had scored one of the most stunning political upsets in American history.

The President called his Independence home to talk with Mrs. Truman and their daughter, Margaret, as soon as he reached the hotel.

The First Lady and Margaret burst into tears at the sound of the Chief Executive's voice.

Mr. Truman later received congratulations of his official party and telephoned to his close friends as he sat on a large lounge in the living room of his suite.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and Mrs. Dewey, after staying up all night to hear the election returns, retired for a nap at 8:30 a. m. today.

Gov. Herbert Snowed Out

came in. His margin passed the 110,000 mark with 7,383 of the precincts in.

Republican Gov. Thomas J. who unseated Lausche in turn two years ago, conceded defeat at one o'clock in the morning. About 50 minutes later Lt. Gov. Paul M. Herbert admitted "It looks bad for the rest of the state ticket as well."

Mid morning returns showed the Democrats leading for all state offices except treasurer and the two supreme court posts.

Here's how the balloting stood with 8,113 of 9,170 precincts reported:

Lieutenant Governor: Paul M. Herbert (R) 1,128,099; George D. Nye (D) 1, 198,460.

Secretary of State: ..dward J. Hummel (R) 1,095,134; Charles F. Sweeney (D) 1,210,572.

Auditor of State: Roger W. Tracy (R- 1.030,197; Joseph T. Ferguson (D- 1,224,101.

Treasurer of State: Don H. Ebright (R 1,169,297; Harry V. Armstrong (D 7,120,422.

Attorney General: Hugh S. Jenkins (R 1,114,992; Herbert S. Duffy (D 1,163,093.

Congress-at-Large: George H. Bender (R 1,137,500; Stephen M. Young (D) 1,199,524.

Supreme Court (Jan 1 term): Edward C. Turner (R) 869,717; Charles H. Hubbell (D) 688,216.

Supreme Court (Jan. 2 term): Kingsley A. Taft (R) 851,366; Robert M. Sohngren (D) 696,053.

Lausche Remains Cautious Despite Smashing Victory

CLEVELAND — (AP) — Bushy-haired Frank J. (for John) Lausche bounced back into politics today like a big rubber ball with a builtin spring. The governor's chair was his again.

But even with his smashing victory over Gov. Thomas J. Herbert this year, Lausche refused to drop his characteristic caution.

"While today I received the majority of the votes," he said, "my victory will not really be won until my administration is terminated and has rendered service that has been of benefit to all the people of our state."

In fact, the 53-year-old Governor-elect would make no statement until he discussed it over the telephone with Herbert in Columbus this is what he said when he reached him:

"I've just been told that you have issued a statement. I didn't want to say anything until I felt you'd said I won."....A pause, while Herbert talked.... then:

"Thanks, Tom. Thanks a whole lot. Say hello to Mrs. Herbert for Jane (Mrs. Lausche) and myself."

Then Mrs. Lausche grabbed the phone and said: "I wish we both could have won." When she hung up she added: "I hate to see anybody lose."

For his part, Gov. Herbert made no effort to conceal his disappointment but issued a statement that said:

"I cheerfully accept the verdict of the people of Ohio. I have no alibis or regrets over my administration. I would not be human if I did not express disappointment of the result. I congratulate Gov Lausche and assure him of my cooperation."

Lausche didn't take long to get back into state and national prominence in the Democratic party. When Herbert unhorsed him in 1946 by around 40,000 votes it was his first political failure in 10 years.

Even at that he thought he would have won except for the meat shortage. Prior to that he had been Democratic governor two years and the two years before that mayor of Cleveland.

His first flier at politics was in 1922 but he was beaten then and in 1924, running for the state senate as a Democrat. In 1932 he started to roll with the appointment as a municipal judge. In 1936 he moved up to common pleas judge and in 1940 he ran successfully for mayor.

Always an independent Democrat vowing war on bosses and machine politicians, Lausche varied his theme somewhat this year by outspokenly endorsing President Truman on the same night the president proclaimed his allegiance to the New Deal.

For Lausche, that was unprecedented since he never went that far with Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Winter Gets Third Term

Ralph A. Winter, Republican, defeated Carl G. Longwell for State Senator of the 27th-29th Ohio senatorial district, composed of Richland, Lorain, Ashland, and Medina counties. Longwell carried only Lorain, his home county.

Total vote was 50,851 for winter and 45,384 for Longwell. In Richland county the vote was 14,825 for Winter, 14,769 for Longwell. In Lorain it was 20,469 for Longwell, 19,623 for Winter. Ashland county voters polled 7,086 for Winter, 5,459 for Longwell. Medina polled 9,317 for Winter and 4,687 for Longwell.

Senator Winter, an attorney from Lodi, has served two previous terms in the state senate. First elected to his office in 1944, he was at one time or another chairman of the public works committee of the senate, and served on taxation, highway, insurance, and judiciary committees. He was author of the bill proposing a super highway for Ohio, which was defeated in the House by 8 votes.

Longwell is employed in the shipping department of the pipe mills of the Lorain National Tube company gation on trains and buses crossing state lines, against making a voter pay a poll tax before he can ballot in federal elections, making lynching a federal crime, and forbidding an employer to discriminate because of race or religious belief when he hires a workman.

With a fighting campaign, the man from Missouri roused his party from despondency and led it to a victory which almost all its leaders except the President himself had written off months ago as an impossibility.

For Dewey and the "team" around him, it was the bitter end of a 10-year dream. The New York governor has been aiming at and working for the presidency that long.

He broke precedent when he captured the Republican nomination this year after a losing race against Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1944. He can hold no hope that his party will entrust its banner to him again.

STOCKS FALL

In Wall Street, which had anticipated a Republican victory, the initial reaction to the election's outcome was a break in prices of many stocks. Utility stock prices especially fell.

Presumably, the selling was dictated chiefly by uncertainty over what new laws affecting business may be enacted by the new Democratic administration. President Truman opposed the cuts in personal income taxes voted by the Republican 80th Congress. When he called Congress into special session last summer, he asked for revival of the war-time tax on "excess profits" of corporations.

For the rest of the world, the outcome meant double assurance that there would be no shift in American foreign policy. The present policy has been called bi-partisan, but some edginess has been evidenced in Europe over the widely held pre-election expectation that a change in political administrations was coming.

In Washington, speculation already is running high that Mr. Truman now will make many shifts in his own administration.

This is based on the view that he got little help in his campaign from many Democratic officeholders who had looked on it as a lost cause. Among the cabinet members, Mr. Truman's chief campaign help came from Secretary of Labor Maurice Tobin and Secretary of Agriculture Charles Brannan.

The dopesters figure these two will surely stay on, but are inclined to list many other high officilas as "doubtful" of continuing as members of the administration family.

Close associates of Secretary of State Marshall said in Paris he definitely plans to leave that post in January, and Undersecretary of State Robert A. Lovett is also reported to be planning to leave .

In the case of Marshall, the question is whether the President might try to talk him into staying on. A soldier who took the cabinet job because he thought it was a duty call, there was never any expectation among the President's inner circle that Marshall would take the campaign trail in Mr. Truman's behalf.

Along with their big victory in the White House and congressional contests, the Democrats made many gains in state and local offices.

They captured the governorships from Republicans in Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, Connecticut, Delaware, Indiana and Montana. The Republicans overturned the Democratic administration in Utah.

Before the election, the 48 states were split evenly in state house administrations—24 Republican and 24 Democratic.

The shifts indicated the Democrats would now have 30 and the Republicans 18—barring some upset in still undecided races.

Democrats Capture Control Of Eighty-First Congress

In the battle royal for supremacy in the House — the chamber the Republicans were sure they couldn't lose — Democrats had ousted 40 or more Republicans and one American Labor party member, Rep. Leo Isocson of New York.

Not one Democrat who stood for reelection had been turned down.

Among other personalities, Rep. Harold Knutson of Minnesota, author of last year's Republican tax-cutting bill, was trailing in his Minnesota election. He is chairman of the House Ways and Means committee.

Rep. Fred Hartley (R-NJ), co-author of the Taft-Hartley Labor act, did not stand for reelection. His district elected a Democrat to take his place.

But House Speaker Joseph W. Martin jr., of Massachusetts, and most other Republican big wheels in the House survived the Democratic onslaught. These included the Republican leader, Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, Chairman John Taber (NY) of the Appropriations committee, Chairman Charles A. Eaton (NJ) of the Foreign Affairs committee, Chairman Leo E. Allen (Ill.) of the Rules committee, Chairman Jesse P. Wolcott (Mich.) of the Banking committee and Chairman Clifford R. Hope (Kas.) of the Agriculture committee.

Chairman J. Parnell Thomas of the House Un-American Activities committee pulled through in New Jersey. But one of his Republican colleagues on that controversial committee, Rep. John McDowell of Pennsylvania, was defeated.

However, if the trends hold, the Republican committee chairmen will have to step aside and let Democrats take the reins. These will include some big name party members identified with the early days of the New Deal.

Rep. Sam Rayburn of Texas would return to the speaker's chair, replacing Martin, who unseated him when Republicans took control two years ago.

Rep. Robert L. Doughton of North Carolina, who won another term at age 84, would step back into the chairmanship of the powerful Ways and Means committee, replacing Knutson.

Rep. Brent Spence of Kentucky would replace Wolcott as Banking committee chairman. Rep. Sol Bloom of New York once again would become the Foreign Affairs chairman. Rep. Harold D. Cooley of North Carolina would take over the Agriculture committee helm.

More than the chairmanships were at stake. The party in control also holds a majority of the committee memberships.

With this machinery, if the Democrats stuck together, they could say with finality what legislation would be considered and what would be passed.

Confident Republicans entered the Senate contests with 51 seats, of which only 18 were at stake this year. Most GOP leaders expected to retain their six vote margin or at worst end in a 48 to 48 tie with the Democrats.

They won the first contest last September when Rep. Margaret Chase Smith won the Maine Senate seat vacated by Senate Majority Leader Wallace H. White.

But the first returns Tuesday night showed many voters shared to some degree Mr. Truman's estimate of the lawmakers. Former Gov. Robert S. Kerr, Oklahoma Democrat, quickly outdistanced Rep. Ross Rizley, the Republican seeking the seat being vacated by Senator E. H. Moore (R).

Then the veteran Matthew M. Neely, Democratic former governor, representative and Senator, piled up a victory lead in West Virginia over Senator Chapman Revercomb (R).

Another former Democratic senator, Guy M. Gillette of Iowa, outdistanced Senator George A. Wilson in the corn belt.

In Illinois it was the same story. Paul H. Douglas, college professor and Democrat, beat GOP Senator C. Wayland "Curley" Brooks.

Republican Senator Joseph H. Ball was outdistanced in Minnesota by Mayor Hubert H. Humphrey of Minneapolis. And in Wyoming, Democratic Gov. Lester C. Hunt bested Republican Senator E. V. Robertson.

As in the House, key committee chairmanships will go back to veterans who previously held them. These include Senator Tom Connally (Tex) for Foreign Relations, Senator Walter George (Ga.) Finance, and Senator Kenneth D. McKellar (Tenn.) Appropriations.

A large bloc of southern senators who either took outright part in the States' Rights move or opposed Mr. Truman's nomination will set in the next Senate. But they are not in line for major committee posts under the traditional seniority — or length of service — rules.

sioner, who polled 11 more votes than Selby.

The race for prosecutor put Harold Lutz back in the office he held from 1940 to 1942 before he was inducted into the Army.

He defeated the incumbent, Republican Theodore Lutz, who, incidentally, defeated yesterday's winner in 1944. This was a hotly-contested race. The final tabulation showed 16,713 votes for Harold Lutz and 14,870 ballots for Theodore Lutz.

Clifford L. Mitchell, Democrat, a former commissioner, barely nosed out Neil S. Robinson in the contest for representative to the general assembly. Mitchell, with 15,257 votes, won out by a margin of 239 ballots.

E. P. Long, sheriff from 1934 to 1940, won another term in that office by a substanial margin. The tally showed Long received 17,044 votes while his Republican opponent, C. M. Chatlain, had 14,312 votes. Long will succeed Democrat Sheriff Frank E. Robinson who did not seek re-election.

Of the candidates having opposition, Recorder D. D. Orewiler received both the biggest vote and the biggest majority. Orewiler, with 17,992 votes, held a majority of 5,736 votes over his opponent, H. R. Barnes.

Common Pleas Judge G. E. Kalbfleisch, unopposed for re-election, received the largest vote of any county candidate. A Republican who ran on a non-partisan ballot, Judge Kalbfleisch was given 23,152 complimentary votes.

Probate - Juvenile Judge Stuart H. Cramer, Republican, received a complimentary vote of 22,558.

The complimentary vote for two unopposed Democrats was 20,617 for Treasurer Charles C. Payne and 20,218 for Engineer Walter E. Rusk.

Coroner Dr. D. C. Lavender, Republican, received 16,565 complimentary votes.

TRUMAN IS VICTOR

GALION — An election conducted in the Galion Senior High school yesterday by the history classes of which Miss Josephine Tracht is teacher, resulted with Truman winning over Dewey by 11 votes.

When Predictions of 'Experts' Flop

ALL THROUGH the night, and continuing today, there has been an echoing to the fact that poll-takers, dopesters and so-called "expert" predicters of election outcomes, are no more dependable than run-of-mine observers and that it is the actual count of votes that must be awaited before there can be any assurance of what the results will be.

In yesterday's election, for instance, all forecasts—except from the Democratic standard bearer and his campaign manager—confidently assumed the walk-away election of Governor Dewey, while early returns showed plainly that the race would be close, with President Truman showing amazing strength as the night advanced.

States that were regarded as Republican strongholds showed a voting trend toward Truman and the anticipated Dewey strength failed to develop anywhere in the country—even in his own state of New York.

Complete flop of the Wallace third party movement is interpreted as adding to the Truman vote in some quarters, but supporters of Wallace were so few—except in New York—as to have little effect on the result.

The same wave that gave President Truman such unforeseen support extended to Senate races in various "doubtful" states, with the result of anticipated Democratic control of the next Senate.

In Ohio the voting trend followed the national pattern, with former-Governor Frank J. Lausche returned to that office which he lost two years ago to present Governor Thomas J. Herbert.

Richland county, which always shows inclination toward independent voting, this time evidenced preference for Democratic candidates for county offices and elected the complete Democratic county ticket, turning control of the county commissioners' office to two Democratic members after the reverse had been in operation for some years.

With some results still awaiting the outcome of close contests—with possible requirement for the official count in a few instances, it cannot be doubted that yesterday's election provided a fine example to the world of democracy in action, freedom of the ballot as one of its prized privileges.

Voters Approve School Bond Proposal

VOTERS in Mansfield school district have again expressed willingness to provide the money needed to expand and improve this city's public school system to the extent required in meeting present and anticipated future requirements.

Another bond issue proposal—this time for $2,250,000—was approved by the necessary 65 per cent of voters at yesterday's election, and this expression of confidence in the board of education is one that should result in determination by members of the board to immediately exert every possible effort to carry the delayed building and betterment program to earliest possible completion.

Lorain Chest Campaign Reaches Goal

CONGRATULATIONS, LORAIN—it's nice to learn that you have reached the goal of your Community Chest campaign ($125,000) and that the volunteer workers in that campaign are now in position to resume their regular duties.

Here in Mansfield we are not yet able to make such a gratifying report as a struggle is still going on to reach our goal of $122,635, with the campaign extended through next Friday in the hope that additional contributions—or increases in subscriptions—will boost the total to the minimum amount needed for maintenance of the 12 vitally important agencies that participate in the Community Fund.

Mansfield is so unaccustomed to reporting failure in any of its worthy community projects that words are lacking for any such admission. So there's nothing to be done but keep hammering away until the total is reached and SUCCESS reported.

Labrador May Be Source of Iron Ore

TESTS which will determine whether or not the find is really valuable have not been completed, but excitement is growing over discovery of substantial deposits of high-grade iron ore in Labrador. In quality the ore compares favorably with that of the Mesabi range in Minnesota; it remains to be learned whether the deposits are large enough to be important.

By the end of this year it may be known whether there is enough ore to justify opening the range. Some 350 miles of railroad would have to be built, and hydro-electric power would have to be developed from streams near by. These factors increase the amount of ore which must be known to exist before it would be worthwhile to begin the operation.

The shape of future industry in both Canada and the United States may depend on the outcome of the Labrador explorations. The life of the Mesabi range, from which come two-thirds to three-quarters of the iron ore now used in the mills of this country, can be measured in years according to the rate of consumption. To the next generation of Americans the Mesabi range may be only a legend.

As an example of what is meant by 'circumstantial evidence,' Harry Wade cites 'a speedometer jammed at 90, picked from the roadside wreckage.'

Reminder of Anniversary Date

WILLIAM A. DUFF, former Mansfield newspaperman and historian of this territory, writes a weekly column of "Observations" for the Ashland Times-Gazette and his column in the issue of Monday, Nov. 1, contains recital of a bit of Mansfield history that refreshes recollection of early days in the local newspaper field.

"Today," says Mr. Duff, "is the 57th anniversary of the death in Mansfield at the age of 73, of one of my most esteemed newspaper friends of the long ago, William S. Cappeller, founder in 1885 of the Mansfield News. During my years on the staff of the News, 'W. S.' was always appreciative of good work, and after all these years I recall how often he spoke of some good article I had written and gave me encouragement and inspiration.

"He was one of the founders of the Ohio Associated Dailies, of which he was president for several years and in which, throughout a quarter of a century, he continued an active interest. In 1892 and 1893 he was president of the National Editorial association.

Friday evening, Nov. 5, 1937, his own and that of John M. Amos, former publisher of the Cambridge Jeffersonian, were added to the roster of immortals of Ohio journalism at the annual Hall of Fame dinner in the Faculty club on the Ohio State university campus. On that occasion George J. Kochenderfer, editor of the Mansfield News-Journal, gave an impressive tribute to the memory of Mr. Cappeller. Before me is an article of 2½ columns in the News-Journal of Saturday, Nov. 6, 1937, containing the eulogy to 'W. S.'

Now living quietly on his Asesiba farm just outside of Ashland, with his vast accumulation of clippings which provide background for his interesting column, "Bill" Duff, as he is familiary known, is performing valuable service in preserving a record of past events which might otherwise pass from recollection.

House Might Play Role

By D. HAROLD OLIVER

WASHINGTON—(AP)—What happens if neither President Truman nor Gov. Dewey wins a majority of the nation's electoral votes—266 out of the 531?

Under the constitution, the House would then choose a president from among the top three leaders, who in the present nip and tuck election are Truman (D), Dewey (R), and Gov. Thurmond, the States' Rights Democrat.

Under the law, the newly elected House, which the Democrats apparently will control, would make the decision. (It meets January 3).

Each state would have one vote, with a majority in each state delegation deciding how the state's vote would be cast. The winner must have 25 out of the 48 votes.

At 6 a. m., EST., today, the Democrats were assured of control of House delegations in 19 states, Republicans seven, one split, and 21 were in doubt.

If none of the top three gets a majority in the House before January 20, when the constitution provides the new president shall take office, the vice president takes over.

When no candidate for vice president gets a majority of the electoral vote, a vice president is elected by the Senate from the two leaders, who now are Barkley (D) and Warren (R). The winner acts as president until the house chooses one.

What happens if the two houses become deadlocked and can not elect either a president or vice president by January 20?

House Parliamentarian Lewis Deschler says that under Public Law 199 of the 80th Congress, the speaker of the House takes over the presidency temporarily. If the Democrats organize the new House early in January, the speaker would be a member of that party.

A permanent deadlock — which has never occurred — would leave the speaker as president until the next election.

The House twice before has chosen a president. In 1801 and 1825. In 1876 a commission created by Congress decided in favor of Republican Hayes over Democrat Tilden after some southern electoral votes were challenged.

In the first strictly House test, Thomas Jefferson of Virginia was elected over Aaron Burr of New York. Both were Democrats. In 1825, John Quincy Adams of Massachusetts won the presidency over Andrew Jackson of Tennessee by 13 votes to 7. There were only 24 states then, and William H. Crawford of Georgia received four of the House votes.

Pollsters Red-Faced

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

INDEPENDENCE, Mo.—(AP)—President Truman, who found a 31,000-mile battle the dopsters said he couldn't win, fell asleep early today with encouraging returns still pouring in from Tuesday's election.

Whatever the outcome, he had upset the calculations of the public opinion samplers, to bear out his prediction that they would be among the most "red faced" people in the country this morning.

And, he felt that his 351 speeches in cross-country campaigns from June to last Monday had aroused the voters to change the complexion of Congress by replacing Republicans with "liberal" Democrats.

The Republican-controlled Congress had been the principal target of his day and night campaigning in every section of the country.

And, while he boasted from the stump of Democratic victory when the going appeared rough, no word came from the "Give 'em hell" campaigners as he held to his lead over Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, the GOP nominee, as state after state rolled up Democratic margins.

In fact, the President could not be located by newsmen.

Word went out that he left his 14-room home on North Delaware street early last night.

He just "disappeared."

When crowds clamored for him last night, his daughter, Margaret, told them she did not know where he was.

He didn't appear at presidential penthouse quarters in Kansas City's Muehlbach hotel where high speed press association printers brought in the returns.

Reporters were there, talking over developments with presidential press secretaries Charles G. Ross and Matthew J. Connelly and other associates of the chief executive.

There, too, was Tom Evans, big, gray-haired drug store executive and radio chain operator. He would pull the returns from the printer and disappear into the big living room of the penthouse.

Telephone reports were relayed to the President.

But where he received them—that was the mystery. Ross would n't say.

The President, he declared, "is entitled to a night to himself."

And then, about 5 a. m. (EST) Ross relented enough to say the President had retired and that there would be no statement from his quarters.

Maybe, some say, some one will erect a sign reading, "President Truman slept here" to mark his election night hideway.

His brother, J. Vivian Truman, came here to look over the returns and talk over the outlook with the President's advisors. So did his sister, Miss Mary Jane Truman.

As the President clung to his lead, associates in his penthouse quarters talked of the one-man fight he had made when no one gave him a look-in.

They talked, too, of those who had "let him down" before he fought them to a standstill prior to the convention.

Roper Still Says Dewey

By BEN SCHECHTER

NEW YORK—(INS)—Two of the nation's foremost poll takers issued statements early today but only one—Elmo Roper—continued to insist that Gov. Dewey would still win the presidency.

Dr. George Gallup, conductor of the famed Gallup poll, refused to make a prediction in view of the nip-and-tuck race and an aide commented:

"We made one forecast on this election and I think that's enough."

Roper, who announced several months ago that Dewey was so far ahead that it was pointless to continue the poll, said:

"I still think Dewey will be elected president but not by as big a popular vote as expected.

"I have not issued any figures on Dewey's expected victory since our late August poll published on Sept. 9 which indicated he would be elected by 58.2 percent of the vote.

"Since then — especially as late as last Monday—I pointed out a growth in sentiment for Truman, but did not issue any figures."

Dr. Gallup blamed the Truman upset on the "undecided voter" and the desertion of Henry Wallace supporters.

The poll taker asserted that all public opinion polls underestimated the Democratic strength.

Defects In Electoral College System

By THOMAS L. STOKES

WASHINGTON — One phase of the presidential election this year upon which all fair-minded persons perhaps can agree, whatever their political preferences or predilections, is the demonstration of the need for reform in our antiquated electoral college process of choosing our chief executives.

We have seen dramatized, as never before in our time, how the electoral system can be confused and distorted by a minority element—in this case by the Dixiecrats in the South. This extreme example has provoked discussion of the whole problem which, in its course, reveals how a change can work constructively in many directions to give us real popular election of our Presidents.

Alabama provided the most glaring case this year. It was not possible to vote for President Truman there. He was not on the ballot.

Yet, shocking as that may seem in a nation that boasts of its free elections, it was legal in the strict sense under our electoral system.

Legally electors are free agents. The original idea of the electoral college was for the people to choose men—electors—who would gather after they had been chosen and themselves designate the man they thought best fitted among the candidates.

But, for over a hundred years, electors have come by custom to be considered not free agents but, as it was put in a California Supreme Court decision, "they are in effect no more than messengers whose sole duty is to certify and transmit election returns."

In the Alabama primary there was a contest between proposed electors for President Truman and for Governor J. Strom Thurmond of South Carolina, the Dixiecrat presidential candidate. Electors for the latter won all eleven places and so were put on the regular Democratic ballot. While there was evidence of confusion among the voters and charges were made that some electors had not openly announced themselves before the primary for Governor Thurmond, it worked out that all electors were for the Dixiecrat candidate.

Changes Proposed.

NO REAL effort was made, as in some other southern states, to get a set of electors for President Truman on the ballot. As a result there was no way to vote for him. Consequently, thousands of citizens of Alabama were disfranchised.

An even more high-handed process was attempted in Louisiana. The state Democratic executive committee merely met and threw President Truman off the ballot. A storm of protest brought a correction of this by a special session of the legislature which put the President on the ballot later.

In two other southern states there were split electoral lists, with two Thurmond electors in Tennessee and four in Florida on both regular Democrat and Dixiecrat ballots.

The unprecedented "stretching" of the electoral system in these cases would be stopped under a proposed constitutional amendment sponsored jointly by Rep. Ed Gossett (D-Tex.) and Senator Henry Cabot Lodge (R-Mass.)

Only a little pressure should be necessary to get this through Congress and submitted to the states for ratification, since the judiciary committees of both house and senate approved it unanimously in the last Congress and the Republican platform pledges that party to revise the electoral system to get popular election of Presidents.

The Gossett - Lodge roposal would abolish the electoral college as such, through retaining the electoral system of measuring the result. Each candidate would be given the proportion of the electoral votes of each state to which his popular vote there entitled him, so that the electoral vote would represent the percentage of the popular vote, nation-wide, that each candidate received. This would be automatic with nothing left to chance through the whim of individual electors.

Among other advantages, such a reform would make unnecessary the present concentration on a few big states with big electoral votes, since electoral votes would be divided on the proportional basis of popular votes. This would tend to minimize appeals to minorities and to prejudices such as happened in the closing days of the campaign this year, as well as the heavy expenditure of money in those states that conduces to corruption.

Those NLRB Decisions

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON — The government—through the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) — has made important decisions on dealings between unions and employers.

It is legal for a striking union to use pickets in front of a struck plant. But from now on, says the NLRB:

It is illegal for a union to mass pickets in front of the doors of a struck plant to keep would-be new workers or strike-breakers from going inside to take over their jobs.

(The board did not say pickets could not gather in a mass some distance from the doors of a struck plant.)

But mass picketing in front of such a plant has been one of the strongest weapons strikers could use in keeping other people from taking over their jobs and breaking the strike.

So that NLRB decision is far-reaching in its effect on strikes in the future. But the NLRB handed down another decision. That, too, is far-reaching. But right now no one can say exactly how far it reaches.

Before going into this second decision, here's a brief background:

International unions are really parent unions made up of many small unions called locals. The international may have its offices in Pittsburgh, or some other city while its locals are scattered all over the country.

Unanswered Question.

COMES a question: Should an international union be held responsible for something one of its local unions does contrary to law? If so, in what way?

In a recent case the NLRB found the local union had broken the law—among other things, because of violence that had occurred—and held the international responsible, too. Why?

The NLRB said the international was responsible on three grounds:

1. Because an official of the internation was present during the local's strike, when violence broke out, and, although he took no part in it, did nothing to stop it.

2. Because the international referred to the strike of its focal as "our" strike.

3. Because when the case later came before the NLRB, the international and the local admitted the strike was their joint undertaking.

Note that the NLRB held the international responsible here on three separate grounds, but all were joined together in the NLRB's decision.

So—would any other international union be held responsible in a local's strike if it did only one or two of the three things the NLRB said happened in this case?

Or suppose an international union puts up money to help the strikers of one of its locals and that local does something against the law. Would the international then be guilty?

Aides of the NLRB can't answer. They say they don't know. What is the answer then? The only answer seems to be this:

Wait for some future NLRB decision involving an international union, or maybe it will take several decisions.

The CIO says it will appeal these two decisions—dealing with mass picketing and international union responsibility—all the way up to the Supreme Court, if necessary.

Down New York Way

Typewriters To Order

By MEL HEIMER

NEW YORK — The kind of businessman who warms the cockles of our heart is Martin Tytell, whose two floors of office in downtown Manhattan are cluttered with typewriters in all stages of construction and destruction.

His specialty is unique typewriters—with keys in Cherokee, Siamese or Korean, for example—and in the course of work he does business with many mystery-story writers who, these days, evidently have forsaken the goosequill pen completely.

Mr. Tytell, a small, amiable, balding gentleman, tries from time to time to humor these eccentric customers by inventing plots built around typewriters for them.

For one, he suggested a story built around a typewriter on which the letter "I" is attached by a secret wire to a gun which would fire pointblank at the typist when he pressed the key.

"The writer," warned Tytell, "shouldn't be a columnist, or he will kill himself in the very first act and spoil the story." Touche, Mr. Tytell, and how are you as Jimmy Durante would say.

The strange and wonderful requests for assorted keyboards are indeed strange and wonderful. Martin figures the most unusual was from a guy who wanted a machine with nothing but question marks on all the keys.

He made up the typewriter as ordered, but promptly reported it to the FBI. Then, last week he was asked to produce a keyboard for "the language of the insects," as he puts it so romantically. Actually, he created new type face and keys which wrote "male" or "female" after each insect described, the difference in genders being a great pre-occupation of scientists.

Some Are Antiques.

A ONE-TIME GI from Brooklyn, Martin has co-operated with one Comdr. August Dvorak in developing typewriters for one-armed writers, left-handed or right-handed.

His was a typical Army career; when his unusual talent as a typewriter and language man was discovered at the outset of his tenure, he promptly was put to work shoveling coal.

Martin is an ingenious, adaptable men, and he is not bitter about shoveling coal. He developed a frequency of shoveling that he may yet turn to profit with a furnace company in which he and a friend have an interest.

Tytell has a collection of antique typewriters—the one on which this is written is its only important missing component—that he has tried to donate to a museum here in town, but the museum wrote back that it would accept them only if he sent along $150,000 to build a wing in which to house them.

I am fond of the way he met and married his wife. He saw her working in an office where he serviced typewriters, in his youth, and hired her away. "I told her if she did a good job for me, I'd marry her," he says, and four years later, sure enough he did.

Farmer's Diary

One Farmer's Success

By CALVIN A. BYERS

OCCASIONALLY a farmer becomes outstanding in business. There is a man like that a few miles from us along Route 13. He began by borrowing the money to buy two hogs, butchered the hogs and sold the meat at his home-made roadside stand. That is, his wife did.

He himself, got a job at a manufacturing plant, and continued to butcher hogs during his off time. Their two school boys helped the mother sell the meat. Pretty soon the farmer was able to quit working in the shop and devote full time to the home-grown business.

In 1940 they built their first "modern" plant — which they outgrew in two years. So they built a larger building right over the first, in 1942. Since then they have added on a wing with an office and workshop-kitchen.

They now hire 15 people — two shifts every day—and keep two butchers busy full time. Last week they killed 50 hogs and 18 beeves.

The two sons, returned from three years in the war, are partners with their Dad in the business, now. There are three grandchildren. This year they have added a lunch room to their establishment where home-made country food is sold. The equipment is modern and sanitary, the service friendly, honest and high class.

"We pay more for quality livestock — we hire help we are proud to have around," said the manager quietly. "We feel sure it pays."

"Who designed your plant?" asked my wife.

He smiled. "I did — Dreamed it up while I stoked the boilers on my job at the plant. Even knew where each man would work and how many animals we could handle. But mother, there, baked and cooked for the help — she's the 'power behind . . . ' Now it keeps us both busy behind the scenes, doing office work, management — and of course, the pies!"

Dad is a big man. His wife is a trim rosy cricket of a woman. I saw the pies. They were tender and flaky brown with steam gushing from the top. A platter of fried mush flanked by such pie as that would make any man's mouth water! These folks are interested in in-grown quality in everything they sell.

Their cold storage rooms have plate glass windows fronting up to the entrance door. You can walk and look over the meats and vegetables before you ask for anything. The grocery and produce is on one side of the display windows, the lunchroom on the other. It is a novel place of business such as I haven't seen anywhere else.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN HEAR TALK BY THOMAS ZAUGG

"Contemporary Architecture" Topic of Program at First Presbyterian Church.

"CONTEMPORARY ARCHITECTURE" was the subject of the talk Thomas Zaugg gave before members and guests of the Mansfield branch, American Association of University Women last night. The dessert meeting was at 7:30 at the First Presbyterian church.

Mr. Zaugg stated that American architecture reflected the American people themselves.

"Eighteenth century architecture was simple and honest," he said, "but in the latter part of the nineteenth century it reflected the disorder conflicts of the people. Modern architecture," he explained, uses plaster, steel, glass, and brick as themselves rather than trying to disguise them as something else. This," Mr. Zaugg added, "shows an honesty which was not apparent in architecture of the 1890's."

Hostess for the meeting was Mrs. Virt A. Simpson, assisted by Mrs. Hugo A. Stimmler, Mrs. Charles F. Farry, Mrs. H. G. Knierim, Mrs. Howard Carpenter, Mrs. Marion C. Uhl, Mrs. Lincoln Bennett, Mrs. Robert Fleming, Mrs. Dale Channell, Mrs. M. D. Harnly and Miss Florence White. Dessert was served at attractively decorated tables for four.

A business meeting followed Mr. Zaugg's talk and reports were heard from the various committee chairmen.

New members introduced by Mrs. Kenneth E. Buhr, credentials chairman, were Miss Mercedes Blue, Miss Katherine Bristor, Mrs. Paul Denig, Miss Beth Dunbar, Miss Carol Hosler, Mrs. Rex Larson, Mrs. Herbert Lombard, Miss Betty Macy, Miss Maryann Ogg, and Miss Angeline Smilanich.

Miss Janet Kelly, membership chairman, introduced the following prospective members: Miss Martha Funk, Mrs. Veda Gardner, Mrs. Jack Hammett, Miss Katherine Hardin, Mrs. Charles R. Henry, Miss Naomi Linsenmayer, Miss Patricia Pine, Miss Margaret Rooney and Mrs. Douglas Traver.

The Current Books group will meet Nov. 16 at First Christian church with Miss Frances Randall as reviewer. The International Relations group will meet this Thursday, Nov. 4. Nuptial Vows Exchanged For Miss Bowman, Mr. Zartman

MSGR. R. C. GOEBEL officiated for the double ring ceremony of Miss June Eleanor Bowman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bowman, 29 Edwards avenue, and Glen Zartman, son of Mrs. Margaret Zartman and the late Ernest Zartman, 194½ West Fourth street, Oct. 30, at 9:30 a. m. The nuptials were spoken in St. Peter's Roman Catholic church before an altar decorated with baskets of yellow and white mums, ferns and palms.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a colonial white slipper satin gown with a yoke of French illusion. The drop shoulder bertha of satin folds was edged in wide lace. The sleeves were long ending in points over the hands. To the tightly fitted bodice was attached a full skirt worn over hoops and extended into a wide Cathedral train trimmed in Chantilly lace. The hemline of the skirt was caught up in tiers to reveal a petticoat of rows of French marquisette ruffles. The imported French illusion fingertip veil was edged in Chantilly lace. It was attached to a queen's crown of seed pearls, bugle beads and rhinestones. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

She carried a muff of ostrich feathers centered with a pink camelia. Miss Margie Wells, Miss Joan Keiser and Miss Lois Shaull, all friends of the couple, were the bridesmaids. 'Religious Sects of Ohio' Theme Of Program For Sorosis Club

"RELIGIOUS SECTS OF OHIO" was the interesting theme of the program presented last evening to members of the Mansfield Sorosis by Mrs. A. E. Courtney. Seventeen members were in attendance at the Women's Club.

"Ohio in its 145 years as a state has made outstanding religious history for our country," stated the speaker. "At its inception its soil was dedicated to religious liberty,—liberty of soul and conscience."

"This high endeavor," said Mrs. Courtney, "has been maintained throughout its history without shedding of blood. Ohio has been the cradle of many religious sects for our country and today stands near the top in number of churches, church membership and investment."

"The Moravians," she continued, "who came in 1761 to Schoenbrun, were the first to establish a church in Ohio."

Mrs. R. M. Beatty furnished the latter part of the program, telling of "Famous Hymns."

She explained many interesting incidents which inspired the writing of our favorite hymns. "Faith of Our Fathers" was sung by Mrs. Fred Troll and Mrs. H. D. Bishop. Other favorite hymns were sung by the entire group.

Mrs. LeRoy McGinty presided for the business session and Mrs Courtney served as hostess. The next meeting will be held Nov. 16 at 2:30 p. m. with the Misses Sophie and Bertha Ruess as hostesses at the Women's Club.

Orange twisters are made from strips of biscuit dough, with orange rind and sugar rolled into the dough. After baking, the twisters have a pebbly surface with a glisten of sugar.

Once a bride has learned to make good biscuits—and that skill is by no means as difficult as the cartoons would have us believe—she's ready for an advanced lesson that includes making orange twisters. These crisp curls of biscuit dough have an orange flavor accented by a crust of sugar, and the shape is enough to turn them into a culinary triumph for the cook.

To form twisters, first roll an orange rind-sugar mixture into the biscuit dough. Then cut the dough into strips, double each strip over and twist with one motion. For a variation, you might try braiding three shorter strips together, pressing the ends together firmly.

Orange twisters may be served wherever biscuits would be proper, and they may also accompany afternoon cups of coffee or tea.

ORANGE TWISTERS

2 cups sifted enriched flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
2 to 4 teablespoons shortening
⅔ to ¾ cup milk
Orange Sugar

Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Cut or rub in shortening. Add milk to form a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board and knead one-half minute. Pat or roll out into eight-inch square about one-fourth inch thick. Roll Orange Sugar into the dough. Cut into strips about three-eighths inch wide. Double each strip over and twist. Place on baking sheet. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) 10 to 12 minutes.

Yield: About 18 three-inch twists.

ORANGE SUGAR

2 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon grated orange rind

Blend sugar and orange rind together.

HOROSCOPE

For Thursday, November 4

A particularly lively eventful and fast-moving train of circumstances is forecast, in which high hopes and wishes may be pushed with alacrity, acumen, with increasing scope and promise. Shrewd and astute tactics well-studied and executed with dispatch and vigor, could go far on the way to cherished goals. But such fine enterprise and ambition could profit by some wise semblance of keeping within bounds not in extravagant or "flash-in-the-pan" maneuvers. Shun extravagance, false promises, over-playing in all manner of relationships and contacts.

Those whose birthday it is, may prepare for a particularly lively, progressive and fast-moving pace, with new and ambitious ideas, hopes and wishes, well on the way to perhaps spectacular accomplishment. The energies and mental facilities are stimulated to sagacity and high adventure, with shrewd insight and astute manipulation. However, there is danger of being over-confident, lured by false promises, or by an urge to over-play, exaggerate or "plunge." Large expansive ideas may beckon, but thrift, sound judgment and discretion may pay larger dividends.

A child born on this day is well endowed with enterprise, initiative, versitality, but may be easily victimized by its own enlarged ideas or the fluency of false words or schemes.

Old Ships Get Lease on Life, Serve as Schools

Connecticut Whaling Town Being Restored

By HENRY C. NICHOLAS
Central Press Correspondent.

MYSTIC, Conn.—A Connecticut whaling town of 100 years ago—complete with cobbled main street, smelling of oakum and tar, lamps lighted with whale oil, and lined with the shops and lofts typical of such a street a century ago—is being recreated on the Mystic river.

The visitor walking down the main street will see some of the most famous of square riggers lying at their berths and hear the sounds and cries of men at work. The only thing missing will be the rough and salty language of the seafarers of old.

What the restored town of Williamsburg means to colonial Virginia this seaport town will mean to the whaling industry which once flourished along the New England coast. The town will be a living preservation of America's tradition of the sea, designed for education of her future generations in that glorious heritage.

TRUE ANTIQUES

There is, however, one important difference. While the town of Williamsburg is being built of new materials and made to look old, Mystic Seaport will consist almost entirely of century-old shops, lofts, equipment and ships which miraculously have been saved by loving hands from the graveyards of this once great and glamorous New England industry.

The idea of such a restoration was conceived shortly after World War I by a doctor, a business man and a scholar—Dr. Charles K. Stillman, a descendant of one of Mystic's greatest shipbuilders, Edward E. Bradley and Carl C. Cutler. The last two are descended from seagoing families and as young men had sailed around the world before the mast.

Years were spent in historical research and in enlisting the support of important recruits, admirals and bankers among them. In 1929 the Marine Historical Association was incorporated and became the official sponsor of the restoration.

For 20 years its curator, Carl C. Cutler, has been collecting relics of the whaling days of New England. He now seems to have enough material to build several old whaling towns, besides Mystic Seaport.

A point on the Mystic river was selected as the site of the restoration because Mystic farm boys had built and sailed the finest ships afloat—crack packets and China traders.

Mystic had "produced more noted sea captains, a greater tonnage of fine ships and a larger number of important sailing records than any other place of its size in the world."

SKIPPER AT 20

Among these ships was the 47-foot sloop Hero, skippered by Capt. Nat Palmer, a lad of 20, who discovered a new continent—Antarctica.

Another was the clipper ship David Crockett which made the first 27 round trips to California, a record never to be equalled by any other ship.

The Andrew Jackson beat the record of the Flying Cloud by racing around the Horn to San Francisco in 89 days 4 hours.

While Mystic Seaport is far from complete the plans are now materializing rapidly. The marsh on the location of the now forgotten town of Greenmanville has been filled; the main street laid out and a sea wall constructed around the area.

The first building erected on the main street is an old shipsmith's shop which was brought to Mystic from New Bedford. It has the full equipment—forges, leather bellows and special tools—that the old smiths used to make harpoons, lances and other metal objects for whalers.

This building will later be joined by a ship chandler's shop, that sold cordage, anchors, pulleys and similar equipment; a cooper's shop, where barrels and casks were made; a sail loft, a spar shed, a rigging loft.

There will be the other normal buildings of an early seaport town—an apothecary's shop, a schoolhouse, a fire-house, an old tavern and a bank. The bank, for instance, is an old countinghouse at Old Mystic, which will be moved stone by stone.

MEDICINE BY MATH

One of the curiosities is an old medicine chest made by Duncan Phyffe, which bears testimony to the simple method followed in administering to the ills of the crew. The ship's captain had the bottles in the chest numbered from one to 10, number one being for smallpox, two for diptheria, three for cholera, and so on.

It appears that one sailor developed symptoms the captain diagnosed as requiring the contents of bottle number 10. But bottle number 10 was empty.

With Yankee ingenuity, the captain used simple arithmetic and combined a bit of number seven with a like quantity of number three and gave the resulting mixture to the suffering sailor. The results were not recorded.

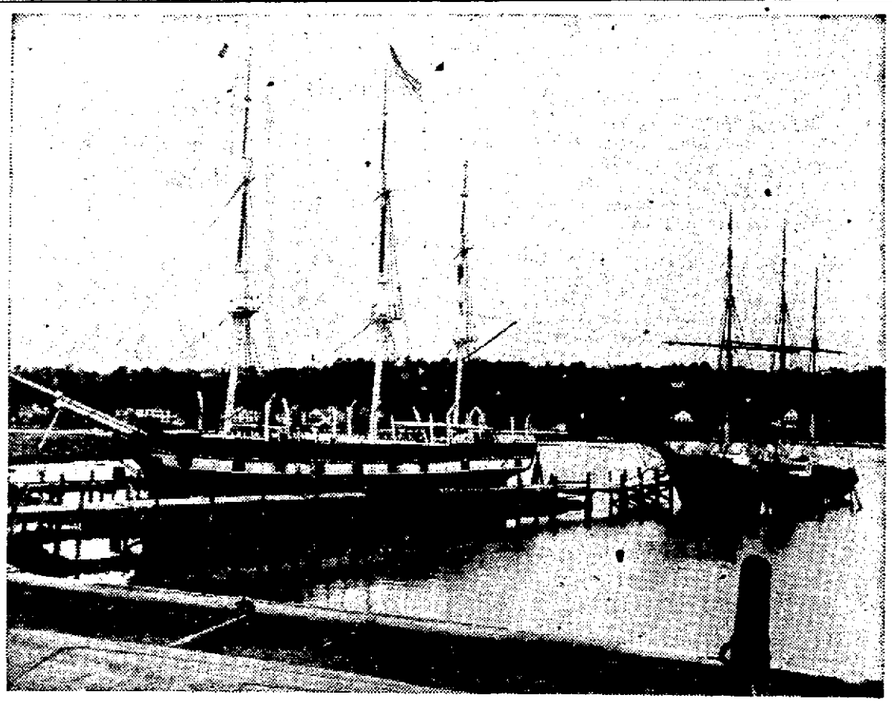
Among the old ships tied to the wharf is the 110-foot square rigger, Charles W. Morgan, the last of the New Endland whalers.



MUSEUM PIECES—Docked at Mystic Seaport are the Charles W. Morgan (left), famous old whaleship, and the Joseph Conrad, schoolship built in 1882, but which will continue to do duty as floating classroom.

Holmes Vote Finds Dems Setting Pace

Upsets Lacking; Party Line Held

MILLERSBURG—This normally Democratic county of Holmes entrenched itself more firmly in the party line in yesterday's election. There were no upsets in the heavy voting which brought out more Democratic strength than the late President Roosevelt was able to muster.

The presidential race balloting was close with Dewey garnering 2,499 and President Truman polling 2,480. In the gubernatorial race former Governor Lausche (D) had 2,991 to 2,140 for Governor Herbert (R).

Nye led the lieutenant governor race with 2,239 votes to 1,822 for Herbert. Sweeney paced Hummel (R), 2,340 to 1,781, in secretary of state voting. Ferguson led Tracy (R), 2,676 to 1,665, as auditor of state and Armstrong got 2,241 votes as state treasurer and Ebright (R) collected 1,976.

Duffy led the state attorney general race in the county with 2,338 votes to 1,740 given Jenkins. Young led Bender, 2,364 to 1,772, in the race for representative-at-large. John McSweeney (D) had 2,597 and Henderson Carson (R) had 1,855 in the 16th District congressional race.

Realtor Gets Council Seat

MILLERSBURG — Earl Marchand, Millersburg realtor and former councilman, was selected this week by Millersburg council to fill the vacancy of Bernard Rambacher who recently went to Arizone.

A waterworks ordinance was adopted by council. Charles Dietrich, superintendent of the waterworks and his assistant, Leland McKee, will each receive an increase in salary under the ordinance.

A damage complaint was submitted by letter from Dr. Ernest R. Gamble of Cleveland Heights asking council to reimburse him in the sum of $44 which he says was repair costs to his auto as the result of crossing the street at intersection of Clay and Jackson streets on Oct. 26, 1948.

Council passed a motion for the return of the bill with the statement and information that there is no defect in the street at this intersection but a dip in the street and that 20 miles an hour is stipulated speed at which speed no car would be damaged in passing over.

Bills totaling $724.43 were ordered paid. Mayor Bert Bower reported $14.60 collected in fines and costs and $5.50 in permits.

The key to this new design principle is a recessed floor. The New Hudson is the only car you step down into!

But no amount of looking at this amazing car—beautiful as it is—can equal the thrill of a Hudson ride! And you are invited to enjoy that ride today!

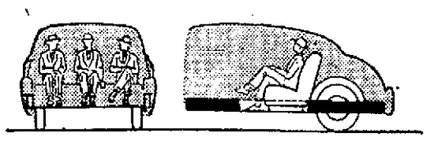
Hudson has a smooth, hug-the-road way of going in cross-winds and on every conceivable kind of highway. When you see the way it takes even the sharpest curves, you'll know once again that this car has "The modern design for '49"—and for years to come!

Hudson's remarkable ride is largely due to the fact that its "step-down" design provides the lowest center of gravity in any American stock car—yet road clearance is ample! It is a widely recognized fact that the lower to the ground a car can be built, the more stability it will have and the safer it will be.

You sense a delightful conformity to the road the minute you begin your ride, and this stability, plus the protection of riding encircled by a sturdy box-section steel frame, is a grand experience in serene, safe well-being.

This grand feeling is further heightened by the remarkable ease with which this car is controlled. You enjoy this generous roominess in complete relaxation as the New Hudson glides smoothly along.

We cordially invite you to see and drive the New Hudson, to thoroughly enjoy the ride that comes only with "The modern design for '49!"



HUDSON FLOORS are recessed down within the frame (as shown above), seats are lowered, so you get more than ample head room in this car with the new, lower center of gravity.

YOU RIDE DOWN within a base frame (as shown above), and rear seats are positioned ahead of the rear wheels so that full body width becomes available for wonderfully roomy seats. Box-section steel girders completely encircle and protect the passenger compartment.

TRY AUTOMATIC GEAR SHIFTING in forward speeds as provided by Hudson's Drive-Master transmission—by far the easiest of all ways to drive. You can accelerate as long and as fast as you like in pick-up gear, then lift your toe momentarily, and you're in high. The shift into high comes only when you are ready! Button control on the instrument panel provides instant change to conventional driving if ever desired. Drive-Master transmission is optional on all New Hudsons at small extra cost.

*Trade-mark and patents pending.

Captured After Flight From Basement of Holmes Jail

MILLERSBURG — Picked up by the same officer that made his arrest for the offense he is waiting to be tried for, Edgar Hatfield Vaughn, 37, running at large since he walked away from Holmes county jail at 6:40 p. m. Sunday evening, is in jail here again. As he sat along State Route 39 about a mile east of Millersburg, he was taken into custody again by Deputy Sheriff Gordon Barton at 1:40 p. m. Tuesday.

Wearing a T shirt, a pair of overalls and a pair of shoes, Vaughn appeared to be "all in," Deputy Barton said.

One hour after he was back in jail he was brought before Common Pleas Judge Elmo M. Estill and changed his former plea of not guilty to that of guilty. He was indicted by the Holmes grand jury for armed robbery and auto theft.

He asked the court that his sentence might run concurrently, but the court replied that because he fled when a deputy was called to the phone while the two were in the basement firing the furnace, the request was denied.

On the charge of armed robbery he was sentenced to not less than ten years nor more than 25 years in Ohio penitentiary and on second count of auto theft he was sentenced to from one to 20 years in the penitentiary, sentences to run consecutively. He was paroled last spring from the penitentiary, where he served time for auto theft, and he told the court that he was sentenced in California, 1936, for issuing a check without sufficient funds.

During his two days of stolen freedom he was within a radius of a couple of miles of Millersburg. He told the court he walked away from the jail to see a girl and intended returning to jail after he saw her. He will be taken to Columbus to start his sentences immediately.

Is a Sohio "winterizing job" any different?

You bet it is! Sohio gives you a Starting Guarantee!

You pay no more. You have no more done to your car than the normal seasonal changes and checks that most car makers recommend. But when you "winterize"* at Sohio we issue a written guarantee which says —"Your motor starts every time, all winter long, or we pay your garage starting service bill."

All that's needed to keep that guarantee in force throughout the winter is your continued use of our gasolines and lubricants and your ordinary care. Nothing could be more simple—more fair.

You might well ask —"Why does Sohio offer Guaranteed Starting when no other oil company does?" We do it to show the absolute faith we have in the products we make. We know how well they work in Ohio winter weather. To convince you of that . . . to show that we're willing to back up our promises . . . we issue a guarantee that you can collect on quickly, simply and without argument if our products ever fail you.

This Fall, the 11th season of Guaranteed Starting, we will issue the one millionth Guarantee. We think you, too, should have a Sohio guarantee in your glove compartment.

Claims F. D. R. Betrayed U. S. By Aiding Communist Organizations

NEW YORK—Slowly but irresistibly the ghastly truth is dawning that Franklin D. Roosevelt betrayed the United States and built up the enemy who is now making it necessary for this nation to spend its way into bankruptcy feeding and organizing Western Europe so that Western Europe will serve as a battle-line in the coming Roosevelt memorial war. It is useless to pretend that our government does not foresee and expect that war.

Otherwise we would have no reason to draft soldiers and to resume, as we have, the production of war materials under government procurement contracts. Who else threatens us?

Roosevelt's guilty encouragement of the Communist penetration of our government as revealed by the committee on un-American activities, is to the benefit of the Kremlin, of course. So are the confusion, the instability and inefficiency which afflict our commerce and industry, all caused by Communists in Roosevelt's totalitarian union rackets. This sabotage has been caused either directly through their own agents or by stupid, old-line union bosses of the A. F. of L., who are morally and intellectually unfit for any positions of power.

All this is according to the great Communist plan to cripple us.

Benjamin Gitlow, who in his day occupied every important post in the American Communist party, the first of our famous backslid bolos, is one of the best authorities on this Roosevelt submission. His authority can not be doubted and he has now written his second book on the peril. He seems to be trying to make amends. It is too bad he had them to make.

"Three events," says Gitlow in this new book, "The Whole of Their Lives," "one in the U. S. political field, the other in the economic field, the third in the international field of diplomacy, established the American Communist movement as a factor in the political, social and economic affairs of the country.

"American Communism owes its rise to prominence to the election of Roosevelt in 1932, to the organization of the Committee of Industrial Organization in 1935, to the recognition of the Soviet Union by the United States in 1933.

"Though Roosevelt's New Deal program and organization ranks first in immediate importance to the growth of communism in the United States, the organization of the C. I. O. from the Communist standpoint is much more basic and of lasting importance to the movement, even though the organization of the C. I. O. without Roosevelt's blessing would never have taken place. The recognition of the Soviet Union facilitated Soviet and Comintern (international Communist conspiracy) penetration of the United States."

On the subject of Roosevelt's flippant, all-wise betrayal of the United States and of western Christendom at Teheran and Yalta, in his conferences with Stalin, Gitlow writes only as all other authorities and students of these frightful misdeeds have written. Not even Roosevelt's defenders have dared try to justify his conduct or mitigate his guilt.

Volunteers Open Drive For $12,000

Annual Campaign to Continue to Jan. 1

The Volunteers of America opened its annual campaign today to raise $12,000 to finance its work for the year. The goal in this year's drive which will continue until Jan. 1, is double the amount set last year. The organization last year raised $1,000 more than the goal of $6,000.

Lt. Maj. and Mrs. R. L. Gutterman, commanders; George Cheatwood and Henry Wagner will be the only solicitors in the campaign. They will make a house-to-house canvass and solicit Mansfield business establishments.

The Volunteers of America is recognized as the only disaster emergency relief organization in Mansfield, according to Gutterman. The Volunteers receive no money from the Community Chest.

Gutterman said the goal had to be increased because of the growing population in Mansfield and the increasing demand for help.

Among the services performed by the Volunteers are emergency relief, rehabilitation, child welfare, religious programs, Christmas programs, and a transient bureau.

Gutterman said the Volunteers is the first organization to open a transient bureau in Mansfield for women and children. The bureau also is being used for evicted families.

In connection with its Christmas program last year the Volunteers gave 85 baskets worth $15 each.

USE SALVAGE MATERIALS

As part of its community relations program the Volunteers collect waste material and use the money obtained from the sale of it for help of the needy. The Volunteers feel that they are aiding the city in this project by helping to do away with fire hazards, Gutterman said.

The community store, located at 292 North Main street, is another part of the group's program. The organization feels that to give charity outright may pauperize the individual. At the store those who are able pay a small amount for clothing and other necessities. Gutterman emphasized that the group does not attempt to make a profit on this work.

The newest program of the organization in child welfare work is a religious instruction period held at the chapel each Friday night. The program began last Friday and will continue weekly throughout the winter months. Floyd Smith and Miss Lylian Dickerson are in charge of the weekly meetings. Eighteen children attended the first one, and the group hopes to build the attendance to the 100 mark.

The advisory board of the organization includes Charles Callihan, George A. Davis, Howard Doner, Leroy Funk, Arthur Glattke, Mrs. Marie Menchan, E. J. Wessen, Carl J. Hartman, Frank J. Mayer, Leonard B. Hurwitz, R. J. Welch, Marshall Moore, Evelyn Croker, and Philip Wappner.

China Stunned By Reds' Mukden Win

PEIPING—Extent of the communist victory in Manchuria stunned government supporters in north China today.

Chinese loyal to Chiang Kai-Shek called it a "disaster" and a "monumental tragedy." They feared more setbacks now that the communists can unleash their Manchurian armies for attacks elsewhere.

(Chiang's second loss of Manchuria—it fell to the Japanese before—in itself does not necessarily portend loss of the civil war, said Associated Press correspondent Fred Hamson in a dispatch from Shanghai.

("He never really held much of Manchuria," said Hampson. "But the manner in which he lost and the enormous troops and supply losses entailed appear to have undermined the entire war machine of the Nationalists, possibly beyond repair.)

The government has given no idea of its losses in Manchuria with the fall of Mukden.

There were indications, however, that not a single soldier escaped the Mukden area to the seaport of Yingkow, 115 miles south. No new reports came from Mukden, bombed by government warplanes yesterday for the second straight day.

Chinese looked to Nanking for possible changes in the government. Premier Wong Wen-Hao announced yesterday he would resign over "total failure" to balance the budget due to heavy military spending.

Rep. Walter H. Judd, R., Minn., said the fall of Manchuria to the Chinese Communists is "another Pearl Harbor" that presents the "gravest danger" to the security of the United States.

The defeat of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's forces also represents a threat to the security of the anti-Communist nations of the Pacific and Europe, said Judd, a member of the House Foreign Affairs committee.

If Russia gains control of China through the Communists, he predicted, additional billions of American dollars will be required to "hold Alaska," maintain the Philippines' independence and allow Japan to remain free.

TRAIN FANS—

Twenty-six Country Day kindergarten pupils yesterday got some first-hand information on the study of trains which they have been taking up in class. The children, accompanied by Miss Eleanor Bond and Mrs. Ethelouise Carpenter, Country Day school director, bought their own train tickets in Mansfield and took a ride to Crestline. There they saw a mail car, diner, and Pullman cars, talked to trainmen, and watched the signals work along the tracks. P. M. Roeper, superintendent of the Ft. Wayne division of the Pennsylvania railroad, gave the children literature and pictures.

Says No Communists In American Legion

Topic of a speech last Sunday by American Legion State Commander Carl Smith at the Fifth District Legion conference at Wellington was: "The American Legion's Stand On Communism." The News-Journal regrets the error which worded the speech topic as: "Communism In the American Legion and Why It Must Be Combated." Joe Denig, commander of the American Legion McVey post, denied today any problem of communism in the American Legion.

Railroad Clamps Down

Cites Threat To Lives

Mansfield school children were warned today to stay off the Erie railroad tracks near North Lake park or face juvenile court action.

The action was taken by Erie railroad officials who said the lives of passengers on an Erie train were threatened in the past two weeks by juvenile vandalism and that property damage to railroad property has been high.

"It's a combination of a safety measure for the children and a safety measure for the passengers on our trains," Emil Lommatzsch, Erie railroad detective, said.

"A week ago Monday we found rail anchors on the tracks at the park. A passenger train had struck them.

"The week before that the children broke more than 100 insulators on the line wires by throwing spikes and ballast at them. They also put a push car on the rails and pushed it all the way to Trimble road and tore down a pile of rails and scattered them all over the banks.

"Because of these conditions, we can't afford to take a chance of having a lot of people killed on our trains."

FACE LONG WALK

Lommatzsch added that the north-side children using the railroad as a "short-cut" to Senior high school, were also "jeopardizing their lives." "We realize it will be a long walk for the children, but we feel that it's better to have them walk even two miles farther and have their lives than to risk the danger of crossing the tracks.

"So far they're staying off the tracks, but we're watching every day and we'll take anyone seen on the tracks into juvenile court."

With the short-cut across the tracks at the park site cut off, north-side school children now must either use the Bowman street or Trimble road crossings, some two miles apart.

Meanwhile, City Engineer W. C. Statler was asked to expedite cost estimates of a proposed underpass at Lawnsdale avenue as requested by council several months ago. The request was made last night by Marion Sackman, 593 McPherson street, who appeared before city council last night.

Statler said the estimate would be ready by the first of the year. The underpass has been under consideration by city council since the early part of this year.

Deny UEW Recognition

WASHINGTON — (U.P.) — The Atomic Energy commission today ordered General Electric to withdraw recognition of the CIO United Electrical Workers in all the company's secret atomic projects.

Commission Chairman David E. Lilienthal said union officers apparently have no intention of purging themselves of charges of Communist "affiliation or association."

The union's officers have refused to file non-Communist affidavits under the Taft-Hartley law. The union has filed an injunction suit in federal court seeking to prevent blacklisting of the union in atomic plants and it also asked $1,000,000 damages from the commission.

Lilienthal's order was contained in a letter to company President Charles E. Wilson. He said the commission order does not apply to individual members of the union who have passed their loyalty tests.

Death Claims S. S. Jordan

He was a member of Owls lodge, Sons of Herman, and Sons of Italy.

His wife, Catherine, survives.

Rev. V. C. Stamets, pastor of the First Evangelical United Brethren church, will conduct funeral services at the Finefrock funeral home at 3 p. m. Friday. Burial will be in Mansfield cemetery.

Bucks Polish Up Passing Defense

Some Stuff Bits Off Cuff of Fan, Sports Writer

By Fred Tharp
(News-Journal Sports Editor)

SOMETIMES this mail call business is most pleasant.... Yesterday was one of those days . . . Each day one of our tasks is to read many Ohio newspapers for possible notes about Mansfielders or the city itself. . . . So we run into an interesting piece in Bud Volzer's column in the Canton Repository dealing with big-time high school football. . . . Then going through the mail, we find a note from a Massillonite with the same column attached. . . . So we pass along parts of both.

MR. FRED THARP:

Inclosed is an article published in Sunday's Canton Repository by "Chuck" Mather pertaining to football as played in Hamilton, Massillon, Mansfield and other teams. We Tiger boosters think our Tigers, your Tygers and other teams in this area play a tougher schedule year in and year out than the teams in other sections of the state.

We train our kids from grade school, up through jr. high school as you are now doing in Mansfield. Massillon may not always have a championship team, but we will always be represented by GOOD teams. As I am sure your Mansfield teams as always will be in the upper bracket with the best in the state.

A Tiger Booster,
J. G. Butler,
Massillon, Ohio.

(Editor's note: Our thanks to Mr. Butler for his remarks and the clipping. However, we wish to comment something on this feeder system business. We, too thought at one time that the thing was of fairly recent vintage here. However, a member of the Mansfield 1908 grid team tells us there was a junior high and grade school program even then. The present feeder idea has been in effect for about 10 years.)

HERE'S WHAT Bud Volzer of the Repository extracted in his interview of Mather, the new Massillon coach:

They're still squawking down Hamilton way about the Big Blue being dumped from the top perch to third place in last week's scholastic football ratings, but—and you can take it from one who should know—the howls, at least for the present, are more than slightly off the beam.

The authority is none other than Chuck Mather, who piloted the gassed-up Butler county grid machine before Massillon snatched him to coach the current edition of the Tigers.

Mather pointed out that his former grid kids are one whale of a ball team—the best in Hamilton's history. However, he added, to concede them the "state championship" at this juncture would be pure folly.

Chuck said the Big Blue's competition up to this stage of the season hasn't been "too hot." Their biggest tests—with Mansfield and Middletown—are yet to come and either of the pair, according to Chuck, could give the Hamiltonians plenty of trouble.

"It isn't the kids who are feeling cocky," the drawling, lanky Tiger trainer asserted. "It's the fans and they're doing the team more harm than good by going around challenging people. They're not giving the kids a fair break."

Chuck agreed that year in and year out the football played in the Hamilton section can't compare with the northeastern Ohio variety.

"Sure they come up with dandies at times," he said, "but they're at a disadvantage because they don't 'raise' players. In this section we—you'll have to overlook the fact that I'm a newcomer—work with the younger kids and bring them up. As a result, the teams are consistently strong."

To emphasize his point that the boys in this section have the "know-how" when they hit the senior high schools, Chuck said his present Massillon crew is the fastest learning bunch he's ever coached.

"I feel right now that after eight weeks of working with them, they've come to as high a point on offense as my Hamilton boys had reached after two years."

Mather believes Mansfield will give the Big Blue its acid test. "The Tygers," he said, "are the strongest team—and that includes Alliance—we've met this year. If Hamilton gets by that outfit and then Middletown—well, that will be time enough for the team to claim the title."

DISSA AND DATA from the Ohio high school athletic front: Merry Harry Mehock, the Tyger track and cross country coach, has an article in the September issue of "The Ohio High School Athlete" . . . Harry tells of his plan for the operation of big cross country meets . . . The so-called "pay check" system is one of the fastest and most complete yet devised . . . The idea was used at Toledo last week and, of course, will be in effect here Saturday in the 1948 state meet . . . Dick Shuff, Mt Vernon back, tallied four touchdowns as his team licked Wooster, 27 to 23 . . . He had 15 TD's for the year . . . There were no penalties called in that game . . . The present Hamilton football team is the fourth to score more than 300 points in one season . . . The record 368 was set in 1948 but should fall this year . . . The 302-total gives the Big Blue the state's top offensive mark . . . Gallipolis leads the major teams on defense with 12 points while Martins Ferry has permitted 19.

GALLIPOLIS, by the way, is one of the few teams appearing willing to play Hamilton in a post-season game. . . . Steubenville has won four straight after losing to Massillon, Middletown and Canton McKinley. . . . Jack Angerer, Dayton Chaminade sub, has carried the ball only 22 times but has a 19.9 yard average. . . . Talking of the second stringers, Jerry Hannah, of Middletown, completed seven straight passes against Columbus East. . . . Every Middie player saw action, trouncing East, 59 to 0. . . . Fred Pearl, Springfield's fine back personally ended the Wildcats' four-game loss streak. . . . He had 152 of his team's 258 yards, scored on a nine-yard run and kicked the extra point for a 7-to-6 victory over Campbell Memorial. . . . Tom Williams, the 6-5 Lima St. Rose halfback and end, is easily one of the state's top pass receivers . . . The 183-pound youngster has snagged 33 passes in seven games for 800 yards, has scored 15 touchdowns and passed for four. . . . He was a sensation at center in the 1948 state Class B basketball tournament. . . . But the grid and cage scouts haven't a chance. . . . Tom says he's going to Ohio State to play baseball . . . The story of the week concerns a Canton Timken scout . . . He was instructed to get a report on the Hamilton-Portsmouth game as Timken plays the Big Blue this week . . . He breezed into Hamilton only to find the game was being played in Portsmouth. . . . The scout didn't make the river city in time

Two Staters Injured For Pitt Contest

COLUMBUS—(AP)—Coach Wes Fesler's Ohio State university Bucks limbered up their defensive plays today in preparation for Saturday's tangle with the University of Pittsburgh eleven here.

The Ohio team concentrated on pass defense and stopping wide sweeps. Fesler used his freshmen backs and ends to put up the kind of aerial and ground offense expected from the Panthers.

"The team's in pretty good shape," Fesler said yesterday. "Two of our boys were banged up in the Northwestern game, but other than that, we're OK."

KRALL DRILLS

Jerry Krall, fleet halfback, and Tackle Jack Dawson, Ohio's kickoff man, both of Toledo, were on the injured list. Krall was in uniform without pads yesterday, indicating he will be ready to go against the Panthers. He came out of the Northwestern game with a bruised chest.

Dawson, kickoff specialist, was not in uniform because of a bad ankle, and he may not see action this week.

The Bucks and Panthers both will enter the game with four wins against two losses. The Panthers defeated Ohio State last year, 12-0.

17 Scholastic Harrier Teams In Ohio Meet

Seventeen teams will compete in the 1948 Ohio cross country meet at the Coolridge golf course Saturday at 11 a. m.

The district qualifiers, individual winner and time follows:

TOLEDO — Toledo Waite, Mansfield, Toledo Scott, Tom Turner, Union township, 10:41.5.

CLEVELAND—Cleveland West Tech, Cleveland Cathedral Latin, Lakewood, Cleveland Rhodes, Priest, Lakewood, 10:06.

SPRINGFIELD — Springfield, Dayton Dunbar, Lynn Owens, Dunbar, 10:34.

Senior high was scheduled to run the unbeaten Springfield team this afternoon at Coolridge.

Cards Making Great Showing

PHILADELPHIA —(AP)—Jimmy Conzelman's explosive Chicago Cardinals are making a pretty persuasive case for themselves as one of the greatest offensvie football teams of all time.

The Cardinals in their first six National Football league games, have gained a grand total of 2,506 yards, 1,387 on the ground and 1,108 yards in passes and scored 194 points, including 26 touchdowns.

The Cardinals trail the Los Angeles Rams (1,618) and Washington Redskins (1,407), in passing yardage. Full Back Pat Harder is the circuit's top scorer.

The Chicago Bears are tied with the Cardinals in touchdowns.

Fine Battle Garb Goes Up In Fire

BOSTON —(AP)— The Boston Celtics, who had hopes of being the best-dressed team in the Basketball Association of America, will be forced to wear last season's uniforms when they open their schedule in Philadelphia Thursday.

They lost four sets of new uniforms, 20 basketballs and all first aid equipment and medical supplies in a $75,000 fire in their home gymnasium.

Late Balloting Increases Canton McKinley Margin

By FRITZ HOWELL, Ohio AP Sports Editor

COLUMBUS—Ballots rolling in late yesterday failed to disturb Canton McKinley's selection as the state's No. 1 high school football team, but did increase the margin of the Bulldogs over second-place Hamilton.

Three sports editors came in with votes after the early tabulations, and all tagged the McKinley team, 46-7 winner over Alliance last Friday, as the state's best. Hamilton picked up second, fourth and fifth place votes, after an "under wraps" win over Portsmouth, 34-12.

Hamilton takes on Canton Timken this week—a team beaten by both McKinley and Ashtabula—and McKinley runs into another unbeaten squad in rugged Lakewood, ninth placer in the poll.

MASSILLON DROPS

Massillon and Toledo Waite, which meet Friday in the lakefront city, were deadlocked in fourth place in the early tabulations, but the three late votes moved Waite into the fourth spot all alone and dropped the Tigers to fifth.

In the Associated Press poll the sports writers select 10 top teams, and in the tabulations 10 points are awarded for each first place selection, nine for second, eight for third, etc.

The "big ten," with the voting totals:

Canton McKinley 248, Hamilton 222, Middletown 198, Toledo Waite 189, Massillon 183, Newark 134, Alliance 133, Martins Ferry 132, Lakewood 126, and Canton South 120.

Of the top ten, Canton McKinley, Hamilton, Toledo Waite and Lakewood have now won seven straight; Middletown has one tie in eight games; Newark, Martins Ferry and Canton South have been tied once in seven starts, and Massillon and Alliance have lost once in seven games.

New London Football Gets Face Lifting

NEW LONDON — With the New London Wildcats showing vast improvement in their play, winning three of their last five games and the "Kittens," Junior high team, thus far sweeping every game before them, this town is once more getting "football conscious."

The Varsity 'Cats face tough opposition this Friday, when they meet Bellville in the last home game of the season. Bellville boasts of an unbroken string of seven victories and will be meeting New London for the first time on the gridiron. The game will be played at 8 p. m.

KITTENS HOT

The Kittens, winners of three straight, will endeavor to make it four Thursday afternoon when they journey to Loudonville for a return game. Last week the locals, headed by Mack Burns and company, handed the Loudonville Junior Varsity a 46-0 pasting. In their three games to date, the Juniors have piled up 104 points against six for the opposition.

Despite the rather tough opposition remaining this season — Bellville, Willard and Wellington —the 'Cats are setting their sights toward the Duke contest, season finale. Wellington has treated New London pretty rough for the past three or four years but it is hoped the Brownson-coached eleven will be able to turn the tables. The Wellington-New London rivalry has been unbroken since 1920 and each team feels that no matter how the rest of the season goes, a victory for either team climaxes a successful season.

No Mikan at All

CHICAGO —(AP)— The current edition of the DePaul university basketball team is the first squad without a Mikan since Coach Ray Meyer took over the team in 1942. George, who was six-nine, was an outstanding star, and Brother Ed, two inches shorter finished his career last season. Both are pros now.

Rissler Lone 600 Bowler In Leagues

Bowlers in six leagues failed to do much in an individual way at the Colony and Richland Recreation lanes last night.

Lloyd Rissler, leadoff man for the Curing Room quintet in the Mansfield Tire league, was the only kegler to "make" the honor roll. Competing on the Colony alleys, he had 208-203-193—604. Second honors also remained in the Tire circuit as Earl Thomas came in with a 190-205-204—599.

Chuck Bauer chipped in with a 167-224-180—571 while J. Gee had 570, J. Ibe, 569, and Harland Groves, 562. Groves had a 236 for the top single game, followed by Skeets Wolf with 234.

Lead in the 12-team Elks league went to R. Treisch with 194-182-199—575. Don Dancer trailed with 181-152-221—554 and Harry Rist had 199-179-161—539.

Colt Aerial Ace Hopes to Repeat Against Browns

CLEVELAND — (INS) — Y. A. Tittle, quarterback for the Baltimore Colts who sparked his mates to victory over the all-America conference champs in a pre-season game, will be gunning to repeat his feat when the two clubs collide Sunday at Cleveland stadium.

Tittle, a former member of the Browns, has led the Colts, who last year occupied the cellar of the all-America conference, to a tie for the eastern division of the AAC.

Although he suffered a sprained ankle in a game with Buffalo, Tittle is expected to see action when the Browns and Colts tangle Sunday.

The Browns, on the other hand, will be gunning for their ninth straight victory this season. In the back of their minds, however, is the game with the San Francisco 49ers the following week.

The 49ers currently are tied with the Browns for the lead in the western division of the AAC.

Coach Dodds Goes All Out For Offense

By CARL LUNDQUIST

NEW YORK —(U.P.)— He turned football from a grind into a lark, but while his boys are having fun, they also are racing headlong toward a New Year's day Sugar Bowl date.

His team is unbeaten and untied and a good bet to stay that way after clearing one of the major obstacles on their schedule last Saturday.

He's the United Press coach of the week, Bobby Dodd of that everramblin' wreck from Georgia Tech, which came out bruised but still victorious over those defensive demons from Duke, 19 to 7.

Of that ball game coach Wallace Wade of Duke, who has been around the football map a bit, was moved to say:

"Georgia Tech has the greatest team I have ever seen."

Strong praise, especially for an institution where great teams have been a tradition.

NEW GRID DEAL

But while victory still is his business, Dodd has instituted a football new deal at Tech where he succeeded stern Bill Alexander in 1945.

Everything is changed. Alex used to feature a single wing, Dodd goes for nothing but a tricky "T." The old Tech teams used to play in tattered drab yellow uniforms which Alexander insisted helped hide the ball in deception plays and gave the players a rough-tough look that scared the opposition.

Now Tech players are dressed in slick black shirts and white pants.

"A well-dressed team has more pride and self-confidence," Dodd said. "Those uniforms are worth about a touchdown a game."

Another wrinkle that worked wonders in the morale department in these days of football players with families, is the "wives' bench." Dodd arranged for the wives of the married people to sit on the field near their husbands.

LIKE DECEPTION

One thing that remains strikingly the same about Dodd coached Tech teams as compared with those run by Alexander, is that T or single wing, they go all out for deception.

The 1948 team, which has won six straight and has scored 141 points to 29 for the opposition, is the best he has seen in 10 years. He has been at Tech since 1931 when he came in as an assistant coach, right off the Tennessee campus where he was an all-America for Bob Neyland. Neyland, whose team Dodd plays this week, still says he is the best back he ever saw.

Tygers Big Favorite Over Marion Harding

Clubs Battle Friday At Arlin Field

By FRED THARP

Back on the Mansfield Senior high school football schedule after a one-year "break," Marion Harding does not figure to change the picture much Friday night.

The two clubs are set to battle on the Arlin field greensward with the Tygers of Coach Augie Morningstar figured a distinct favorite. So far this season, the Presidents have not shown as much stuff as the Dayton Kiser team which fell before the Bengals, 62 to 7, last week.

When Marion was added to the schedule last spring, the game didn't shape up as a setup. President officials had asked to be dropped from the Bengal slate after absorbing a 37-to-0 defeat in 1945 and a 33-to-13 loss in 1946. The Harding schoolmen figured that the Tygers were just too "big league" for them.

BRIGHTER PROSPECT

However, things looked brighter last season in the Prexy camp. They felt, perhaps, that they had a great team coming up so why not surprise the Tygers. The tilt was arranged here his year.

But things haven't panned out. Marion has been a gridiron disappointment this season. Never have the Presidents shown the promise expected of them. They have size and are not slow but consistent winning football ability is something Coach Pete Howison hasn't been able to instill in his team.

Howison has nine lettermen, six on the line and three in the backfield. Two of the backs—Clarence Smith and Jack Bishop—were on the squad which fell before Mansfield in 1945.

SMITH IS TOUGH

Smith could be the boy to take a bit of starch out of the favored Mansfield team's sails. The 171-pound speedster tallied three times last week as Harding defeated Ashland, 19 to 7. His TD jaunts were not of the long variety, consuming only a total of 37 yards. Smith has 14 six-pointers in the seven Harding games to rate among the state's top backs.

Bishop weighs in at 179 and is somewhat of a fine running back in his own right. In fact, the Prexies do most of their offensive work on the ground. They tried five passes against Ashland and did not compete a single one.

Meanwhile, Ashland tossed 25 and completed 10 for 130 yards. In the passing and running departments, Ashland gained a total of 253 yards to 196 for Marion. It would appear that Mansfield would be able to put on a much better offensive show than the Ashland team which has won only one of seven games.

WEIGH THE SAME

Marion and Mansfield both weigh about the same, but there the similarity ends. The Tygers are rated as one of Ohio's better clubs and have lost to only one Buckeye opponent — Massillon. None of the present Tyger cast played against Marion in '46 although Harry Osbun won a letter that year and Capt. Joe Miller was on the squad.

The Marion lettermen are: Backs, Smith, 171-pound senior; Bishop, 176-pound senior and Dick Leffler, 174-pound junior; End, Tom Taylor, 156-pound senior; Tackles, Dick Upton, 182-pound junior, and John Isaly, 170-pound senior; Guards, P. J. Menzer, 147-pound senior and Keith Bushatz, 128-pound senior; Center, Merle Daum, 161-pound junior.

Of the linemen, Isaly and Daum are the only probable starters. Howison has shifted Isaly to Taylor's end spot and Daum is replacing Bushatz at guard. The switches were made last week and so far are holding true as the Prexies get ready for Mansfield.

Injuries Hit Purdue Hard

LAFAYETTE, Ind. — Preparing for the final road game of the season against a powerful Minnesota squad at Minneapolis on Saturday.

Coach Stu Holcomb has been left in the unenviable position where any attempt to name Purdue's probable opening alignment against the Gophers is purely a matter of guess work in view of the indeterminate physical status of a host of key performers.

The plague of injuries which has followed the Boilermakers all season reached a climax last Saturday against Marquette when Bob DeMoss, veteran passing quarterback; Neil Schmidt, speedy sophomore halfback, and Bob Whitmer, right end, all were knocked out of action. To add to Purdue's worries, Kenny Gorgal, fast developing halfback and quarterback who excells as a broken field runner on punt returns, turned up Monday with a bad knee that may keep him from full effectiveness.

Rams Meet Another Tough Foe In Wooster Generals

By CHARLEY STINE

The Madison Rams will go after their first victory in their last four starts Friday night against a Wooster high team which almost upset the applecart of the mighty Mt. Vernon Yellow Jackets last week.

While the Generals have a slightly poorer record than Madison, they have played tougher opposition and reached their peak only last week in the 27-23 loss.

Mt. Vernon beat Madison by only 19-13. Without taking anything from the Rams, it must be considered that the game was played on a mud-soaked field which helped the Madison power and slowed down the Jackets' speed.

TWO LONG ONES

Wooster led Mt. Vernon, 16-13, at the half and only two long touchdown runs by Dick Shuff gave the Generals their fourth defeat of the season. The Generals have lost all their road games but have won their only three home games — another bad omen for Madison.

The Wooster eleven is not too large in size but has both speed and a fancy passing attack. Halfback Wes Snoddy is the slick-hipped broken field runner while Johnny Coppola supplies the power from fullback. Benny Massaro, Coppola's substitute, also is a powerful lad.

Running this machine on the field is Don Gamerfelder, a smooth hand-off artist and fair passer. Most of the offense is on the ground, however, and a majority of touchdowns have been scored by that method.

REVEALS NO PLANS

Coach Ennis Walker of Madison has wisely revealed no strategy plans for the game, but it would not be surprising if he elected to take to the air. Ram aerials were connecting sharply for the first time last week as eight out of ten tried were completed. Three consecutive desperation aerials were good for over 50 yards in the closing two minutes of the game.

Ed Chelski throws almost all the Ram passes with End Jim Brightbill and Wingback Gene Riblet on the receiving end. Fullback Fred Durig and Tailback Yarry Secrist throw on occasion.

Madison has won three games, lost three, and tied one.

Johnny Miller Tops Big Nine Rushing List

CHICAGO — (AP)— Sophomore Johnny Miller, Northwestern's latest secret weapon, has jumped from the unknown ranks to the leading ball carrier of the Big Nine.

Just one game did it. The elusive 175 pound halfback who won all state honors at Chicago Schurz high school, smashed through Ohio State Saturday for 120 yards in 14 tries. This boosted his four-game average to 6.9 in 21 carries.

Prior to his rampage against the big Buckeyes he was just another 20-year old youngster named Johnny.

Ohio State's Jimmy Clark, the previous rushing leader, gained only 41 yards against Northwestern and dropped to fourth place with 5.4. Wisconsin's Gene Evans with a 5.7 average and Jim Embach with 5.6, took over second and third. Incidentally, Miller will face his two Badger rivals at Madison Saturday.

ORTMANN'S PASSER

Michigan's sensational Chuck Ortmann continued as the conference's top man on total offense. The sophomore halfback in four games has totalled 113 yards rushing and 371 passing for a 484 tally. George Taliaferro, the Indiana workhorse, is second on total offense with 402 while Minnesota's Ev Faunce is next with 374.

Ortmann, who has a three-yard rushing average, leads the passers with 29. Completions in 36 attempts for 371 yards and four touchdowns. Illinois' Bernie Kreuger has the most completions, 26, in 50 shots for a gain of 319 yards and two RDs.

The main receivers for these two aerialists also top the Big Nine in pass snagging. Michigan's Dick Rifenburg has caught 11 for a gain of 253 yards and three touchdowns. Illinois' Slip Kersulis has snared 10 for 150 yards but has yet to score. Both are ends.

Wisconsin is the leading rushing team with a 223 average while Ohio State is tops in total yards gained per game with 285.8—195 by rushing and 90.8 through the air.

Michigan is ahead in average yardage per play with 4.54 followed by Ohio State with 4.33 and Wisconsin with 4.29.

Wesleyan Wins

DELAWARE, O. —(AP)— Ohio Wesleyan's cross-country team notched its sixth win of the season yesterday by defeating Baldwin-Wallace, 23-33. Wesleyan has been undefeated for three years.

CLEVELAND —(AP)— Tom Kelley, former John Carroll university end, has been added to the football coaching staff of Western Reserve university.

Denison Tries For Win No. 7

GRANVILLE—Having successfully come through the most difficult contest of its entire winning streak, Denison University's Big Red football team goes after its seventh straight 1948 conquest and 17th consecutive win in three years Saturday when it journeys to Springfield to tackle the hot-and-cold Wittenberg Tigers.

Mentally, DU now knows that it can be beaten, and Muskingum's inspired performance in holding the Granville eleven to a hard earned 7-6 victory may have been a blessing in disguise as it removed any vestiges of over-confidence that may have been present because of Denison's five straight one-sided victories previous to Saturday's contest.

Outsiders Shoot Cute Golf to Top North, South Open

PINEHURST, N. C. — (AP) — When a top line performer in golf, or any sport, turns in one of the top performances, its just something you'd expect. When an outsider does it, that's news.

For that reason, there's a lot more talk here about the chances of Julius Boros and Glenn Teal in the 46th North and South Open tournament than there is about Chick Harbert, Clayton Heafner or Sammy Snead.

Boros, a Bridgeport, Conn., amateur, shot his way into a three-way tie with Harbert and Teal in yesterday's first round. Each had a four under par 68. Heafner, a tournament veteran, was one stroke back and Snead had a 70 to trail by two strokes.

A second 18-hole round was scheduled for today and the low 50 and ties will play the final 36 holes tomorrow.

Ohio State Invites Seven Colleges to Football Dates

COLUMBUS — (INS) — Seven big-time collegiate football powers were pondering invitations today from Ohio State for home-and home football games in 1950 and 1951.

Ohio State Athletic Director Richard Larkins said the schools to which he extended an invitation to gridiron war included Army, Navy, Stanford, UCLA and California.

Larkins said the opener of the 1950 and 1951 seasons will be against Southern Methodist, which will replace an 11-year series with Missouri.

The present series with Southern California, now six years old, also will end after next season because of scheduling difficulties of the western school.

Pittsburgh, another old-time OSU opponent, is on the indefinite list for the two years in question. Big Nine schools may schedule only two games before the Big Nine winter meeting, and then must fill out their schedules.

Larkins, who said the invitations had not passed the query stage, declared:

"This does not mean that there is a break in the relations of Ohio State and Southern California, Missouri or Pittsburgh. We probably will return to Southern California and Missouri in future schedules.

"We are merely trying to get some new actors on the stage."

John Kramer To Speak at Senior High

John F. Kramer, veteran Mansfield attorney and sports enthusiast, will be the guest speaker at tonight's Tyger booster club football session at the Senior high school auditorium at 7:30.

The 79-year-old Kramer was admitted to the bar in 1902 and was a member of the Mansfield board of education in the mid-twenties. He is still an active bowler and volleyball player.

Kramer will share the speaker's platform with Coach Augie Morningstar of the Tygers. Morningstar has a three-fold job tonight. He will talk about last week's game with Dayton Kiser, the game coming up with Marion Harding Friday and will explain the pictures of the Massillon-Mansfield contest.

Bob Young, chairman of the booster meetings, said today several boosters would be awarded Marion game tickets at the session.

There are nearly 3,000 good reserved seats left for the Friday clash. Ticket Manager George Sherman said today that several of the available tickets are good for 45-yard line seats.

Fleitz Leads Loop Scoring

ALLIANCE— (UP) —The individual scoring lead held by Bill Fleitz of Denison in the Ohio conference today was threatened by Carl Taseff, high stepping John Carroll back.

The conference statistics bureau here reported that Fleitz, leading the conference with 66 points, was held scoreless by Muskingum Saturday while Taseff tallied twice against Case to jump into second place with 60 points.

In third position was Paul Miletti, Heidelberg, with 48 points.
